Comment on M'Carthy At Press Talk Limited Only to Generalities

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower replied to a question about Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) today by saying: In cases where a man is a party to a dispute in America—directly or indirectly—he should not be permitted to sit in judgment.

The President declined at a news conference to express any opinion on McCarthy's demands for the right to crossexamine witnesses in the forthcoming Senate investigation of his controversy with Army officials.

As is his custom in connection with questions regarding McCarthy, the President said he has no feelings regarding any particular situation.

Ready To Go on Record

But he said he was ready to put himself on record with respect to the general situation.

It was then he declared a man should not sit in judgment on his own case.

McCarthy has agreed to step aside as a member of the Senate Investigating subcommittee when it looks into his charges that Army officials tried to "blackmail" the group into dropping an investigation of alleged Communists on the Army rolls.

But the senator has insisted he should be permitted to cross-examine Army witnesses, and that Army officials should be permitted to cross-examine him when he takes the witness chair.

Plays Down Row

McCarthy himself in statements last night sought to discount the row as "a blown-up . . . squabble between an employe of the subcommittee and an employe of the Army.

McCarthy has said he plans to take no part in any decisions made by his subcommittee in connection with its public investigation—at a date not yet set—of his row with Army officials. But he has insisted on retaining his right to cross-examine witnesses, and said Army people should be allowed to question him.

An Army report has alleged that pressure was exerted by McCarthy and Roy Cohn, counsel to the subcommittee, seeking favored treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine, an unpaid subcommittee consultant until he was drafted last fall.

Indicates No Big Program To Be Started

Federal Study Being Conducted, President Tells Press Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today there is nothing in the current unemployment situation calling for emergency action.

The subject was tossed to the President at a news conference.

Eisenhower was reminded by a reporter that he had said March probably would be the key month in determining whether a slump in business and employment would be offset by new gains.

The President replied that he had implied that March was a significant month because there is usually an upturn in business in this month.

New Study Promised

He said however, that he had not promised any immediate launching of large scale countermeasures by the government. Instead, he said, he had pledged a new examination of the problem which was causing real concern.

He said that always after the end of war there was a drop in production, adding that employment went down at the same time.

He said unemployment has been rising since last July, but added that the reports for March are not all in.

One thing that is affecting the situation, the President said, is that Easter is late this year and the ladies just haven't been buying yet.

He said firmly, however, that nothing has yet developed which would call for a slam-bang emergency program being applied at this moment.

Might Hinder Recovery

Precipitate action might actually upset the situation rather than help it, Eisenhower declared.

But he said almost every conceivable kind of program is under consideration and study.

On other matters, the President:

1. Said, regarding the tense situation in Indochina, it is important to the free world to have a settlement there in favor of those who want to live their own lives against Communist aggression.

2. Said there is no change in the United States attitude regarding Red China, in connection with the conference to be held at Geneva next month. Red China will be represented there, but not as one of the main consulting powers. The U.S. so far has refused to recognize Communist China on that basis.

3. Warmly praised House Republicans who led a successful fight last week against a Democratic move to cut personal income taxes. The President also noted that the Republicans had the help of some Democrats and added that on the whole he believes the House is doing a good over-all job.

Democrats Kill GOP Efforts at Ousting Chavez

Senator Retains Seat; Five Republicans and Morse Say 'No' to Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—A solid phalanx of Senate Democrats has turned back a Republican attempt to unseat veteran Sen. Chavez (D-NM). By so doing, they successfully defended their slim one-vote margin over the GOP in the Senate.

All of Chavez' 47 Democratic colleagues joined with five Republicans and Independent Sen. Morse of Oregon last night to defeat the ouster resolution 53-36. Chavez did not vote.

Has Firm Hold

As a result, Chavez now has a firm hold on the Senate seat he has occupied since 1935 and the Democrats still outnumber the Republicans in the Senate 48-47.

The defeated resolution declared that the 1952 election in which Chavez outran Republican Patrick J. Hurley by about 5,000 votes was "No contest" and that Chavez' seat was vacant.

The resolution was based on the report of the Republican majority of the Senate elections subcommittee, which said after a 14-month probe that there were so many flagrant violations of New Mexican election law in 1952, it was impossible to tell who really won. The subcommittee majority at no point criticized Chavez' own conduct.

Chavez hailed the vote as a vindication of "the honor and the reputation of my state and 7,000 election officials . . . who participated in the conduct of the 1952 election."

Nominee Would Be GOP

Had Chavez been thrown out of his seat, New Mexico's Republican Gov. Edwin L. Mechen could have named a Republican to fill the vacancy.

Just before the vote on the resolution was beaten, the Senate struck down by an identical 53-36 vote a compromise offer by the Republicans to leave the seat vacant until a special election.

Chairman Barrett (R-Wyo) of the elections subcommittee said after the two votes he believes the New Mexico election issue is settled as far as the Senate is concerned.

Airline Plans First Cleveland-Europe Flight Tomorrow

CLEVELAND (AP)—Weather permitting, a Boeing Stratoclipper takes off at Cleveland Hopkins Airport tomorrow in the first commercial flight between Cleveland and Europe.

Its destination is Paris, and Pan American World Airways, owner of the plane, hopes to make the 3,997-mile trip non-stop. Aboard will be some 60 passengers, mostly doctors and their wives, who have been here for the meeting of the American Assn. of General Practice.

The plane was chartered for about $25,000 for the round trip.

Nineteen Ohioans will be aboard, including a crewman, first officer Theodore C. Patecell of Springfield. The Ohio passengers include: Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Fatuna and their daughter, Mary Anne, Van Wert, and Dr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Willke of Maria Stein, a village in Mercer County.

Judge Refuses Plea To Ignore Charge In Murder Case

BULLETIN

A request by defense attorney Bernard C. Moloney that charges of first degree murder, second degree murder or manslaughter against Bert Elswick be removed from the indictment was overruled and the hearing was resumed this afternoon.

Charges of first-degree murder, second-degree murder, or even manslaughter against Bert Elswick were asked to be removed from the indictment by Bernard C. Moloney, Elswick's attorney, after the state rested its case shortly before noon today.

Claiming that the death of Mrs. Elswick was "an accidental killing," Moloney told the Court that premeditation was not present and was not established by Prosecuting Attorney Ralph Carhart's 17 witnesses who testified Tuesday afternoon and this morning.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Elswick had been drinking, Moloney told the Court, and "a sudden quarrel and a sudden killing" followed.

Carhart, maintaining that the state had proved premeditation, asked that the motion be overruled by Judge Smith.

The judge took the matter under advisement until 1 p.m. when the jury was asked to return. The motion was made in the absence of the jury, according to law.

Sessions resumed this morning after jurors listened Tuesday afternoon to this testimony from 12 witnesses of events leading up to the Dec. 5, 1953 slaying of his wife.

Food Price Hits Six-Year Peak

Wholesale Figures Set By Dun & Bradstreet

NEW YORK (AP)—Wholesale food prices rose this week to their highest point in nearly six years and the second highest on record, Dun & Bradstreet reported today.

The Dun & Bradstreet index, representing the total cost at wholesale of one pound each of 31 foods in general use, climbed to $7.34 compared with $7.27 a week ago. It was 14.5 per cent over the $6.41 figure of a year ago, and represented the seventh consecutive weekly advance.

The increase pushed the index to its highest point since the record of $7.36 for the week ended July 13, 1948.

Crash Near Plain City Kills Cleveland Woman

LONDON, Ohio (AP) — The State Highway Patrol said a 20-year-old Cleveland woman on Air Force duty at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base was killed early today when her car crashed into a tractor trailer on U.S. 42 two miles south of nearby Plain City.

The patrol identified her as Edna J. Howard. A patrolman said Miss Howard's car hit a culvert after upsetting the tractor-trailer. Another truck ran into the overturned tractor-trailer, but neither driver was injured, the patrol said.

Scientists Got H-Test Shock, Ike Comments

Something Surprising Must Have Occured, President Assumes

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Eisenhower told his news conference today that something must have happened at the recent hydrogen explosion in the Pacific which surprised and astonished scientists.

A reporter told Eisenhower at his news conference that anti-American newspapers in Japan and elsewhere were making much of the incident in which Japanese fishermen 75 miles away from the Pacific blast March 1 were reported to have been possible victims of contamination.

Something must have happened, the President commented, that surprised and astonished the scientists.

Eisenhower said Lewis Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, has not yet returned to report to him on his investigation of the explosion.

But the President said that from what he has been able to learn thus far the reports of possible injuries to persons who were relatively close to the blast are more serious than the actual results of the explosion on them justified.

Navy Tanker Showered in H-Bomb Blast

PEARL HARBOR (AP)—The hydrogen explosion March 1 at Bikini Atoll—described by one congressional observer as so tremendous that it was out of control—showered radioactive ash on a U. S. Navy tanker carrying 92 crewmen.

The Navy in a cautiously worded announcement last night disclosed the incident but said "no apparent injury to crewmen exists."

'Slight Contamination'

The 14th Naval District here said the 4,200-ton tanker Patapsco had received "a slight and not a dangerous contamination of radioactive fallout."

It did not say how far the vessel, one of the fleet supporting the test task force, was from the scene of the explosion.

Twenty-three Japanese fishermen were burned seriously in a shower of nuclear ashes from the same blast. They said they were 80 miles away and outside the official hazard zone.

In addition, 28 American technicians and 264 Marshall Islands natives more than 100 miles from the flashpoint were exposed to milder radiation.

Rep. Chet Holifield (D-Calif) said Monday the explosion "was so far beyond what was predicted that you might say it was out of control." He said it had blasted "a tremendous hole in the ocean floor."

Ship Laid Up

The Navy said the Patapsco was laid up at Pearl Harbor "for checking and complete decontamination."

"It has been established that no apparent possibility of injury to crewmen exists," the Navy said.

"All members of the crew were removed from the ship and given thorough medical examinations as an extra safety measure. This examination gave no evidence of any harmful effects from the slight exposure."

Demands U.S. Aid

Rhee Utters Threat To Boycott Geneva

SEOUL, (AP)—South Korea's President Syngman Rhee today called on the United States to help unify Korea by force or give him a ROK army which needs no help "if peaceful efforts fail."

Only if one of these conditions is met will South Korea attend next month's Geneva conference on Korea and Indochina, Rhee declared.

Answers Queries

"We want permission to unify Korea militarily if peaceful efforts fail," he said in written answers to questions submitted by The Associated Press.

"We want cooperation in the form of arms, munitions and other logistical support such as air and sea coverage."

"Failing that," he declared, "we ask immediate expansion of our armed forces to a strength where foreign manpower will not be needed except U. S. officers in advisory and training capacity.

"Under one or the other of these conditions we shall agree to attend the Geneva conference."

The South Korean army numbers 20 divisions. American military experts have voiced doubts that the Korean economy could support a larger army or that the 20 divisions could fight for more than a few days without American supplies.

U. S. Pledges 'Inadequate'

Rhee said he has not received adequate assurances from the United States concerning South Korea's position at Geneva.

The U. S. State Department has assured Rhee that the United States will walk out with South Korea after 90 days if the Communists appear to be using it solely as a propaganda sounding board.

The South Korean President also wants assurances that Korean problems will be discussed separately and that it will be a conference of two sides rather than a round table gathering.

"The actual negotiations at Geneva will take place behind the scenes at meetings not participated in by parties to be vitally affected by them," the President said.

"We must be on the lookout to prevent this danger from materializing."

Big Four 'Brain Child'

Rhee described the Geneva convention as "the brain child of the Big Four" (the United States, Britain, France and Russia). He said the convention was "conceived secretly" at the Berlin foreign ministers meeting. He said it does not conform to the political conferences envisaged under the armistice agreement which sought a peaceful method for the unification of Korea.

He said "they (the Communists) are aware of the desire for peace which motivates us all and they intend to press this advantage to the point where this earnestness on the part of free peoples becomes nothing less than appeasement."

Debate Opened In Senate on Tax Reduction

GOP Chiefs Predict Approval Likely for Billion-Dollar Slash

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate takes up today a bill to slash excise taxes by almost a billion dollars yearly, with the administration facing a fight to prevent further cuts in revenue.

Both Sen. Millikin (R-Colo), floor manager for the measure, and Majority Leader Knowland (R-Calif) predicted the bill would go through without any substantial change.

Easily Amended

But, unlike the House, the Senate considers tax legislation under procedure that permits amendments to be offered freely.

Thus industries which would get no tax relief in the excise measure as presented to the House by its Ways and Means Committee will have their first new opportunity to seek cuts in the Senate.

The Senate leadership hopes to get final action on the bill by Friday. The measure then will have to go to conference with the House to iron out differences. The sales tax changes would take effect a week from tomorrow.

Attempts will be made in the Senate to knock out the excise cuts in the bill as well as to add new reductions.

Major Challenge

But the major administration challenge appears to come from three amendments sponsored by Sen. Douglas (D-Ill) which would cut the automobile excise tax from 10 to 7 per cent; eliminate the 10 per cent levy on a wide range of household appliances including refrigerators, stoves, freezers, ironers, dryers, dish washers and toasters; and cut the tax on television and radio sets and phonographs from 10 to 5 per cent.

Marion School Patrol Begins Fight for Trip

School patrolmen in Marion city schools will be watching their "p's and q's" closely from now through May 5 in an effort to be selected the best patrolman in each school.

Reason for this is the opportunity being offered 14 boys and girls who are active in the patrol—to take a four-day all-expense-paid trip to Washington D.C. from May 6 through 9 for the National School Patrol Jamboree.

Announcement of the plans for the trip was made jointly today by Police Chief Thomas B. Coon and Patrolman D. L. Everly, who have been in charge of the patrol program in city schools.

They said the plan is to select one boy or one girl from each of the schools, which have an active school patrol program for the trip.

The selection will be made by a panel of three judges who will grade the patrol members on merit, including efficiency as patrolmen, scholarship, interest in the patrol program, and attention to duties.

Chief Coon said the panel is presently checking the boys and girls at the various schools unknown to the patrol members. In this way they will be observed performing their duties without

State Moves To Enforce Collection of Sales Tax

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Stanley J. Bowers, state tax commissioner, today told about 50 district sales tax managers and supervisors to tighten up on enforcement measures in collecting sales tax.

The tax managers discussed a recent Ohio Supreme Court decision on who is liable for paying sales tax.

Bowers said he aims to make the vendor personally liable for the tax if he fails to collect the tax from purchasers or fails to get certificates providing for tax exemption. State law provides for exemption from paying the sales tax in more than a score of different types of transactions.

Spots Killers in Early Stage

Scientists Discover New Method To Detect Cancer

BOSTON (AP) — Boston scientists have devised methods of detecting and diagnosing in a relatively early stage three of the commonest killers—cancers of the brain, breast and uterine cervix, the tip of the womb.

The results of this research were disclosed today to a group of science writers touring leading research centers under the guidance of the American Cancer Society.

Finds Rapid Way

A Tufts Medical School scientist, Dr. William H. Fishman, has found a simple, cheap and rapid way of detecting not only well-established cancers of the uterine cervix in post-menopausal women but also cancers of microscopic size and even precancerous conditions.

While his method missed a little less than 20 per cent of proven cancers, it brought to light many cancerous and precancerous conditions which might have been missed by conventional methods, he said.

Dr. William H. Sweet, neurosurgeon, and Dr. Gordon L. Brownell, physicist, of the Harvard University School of Medicine and Massachusetts General Hospital, reported that they could not only diagnose but even pinpoint brain tumors without opening the skull.

Method Described

They do this by injecting the patient with radioactive arsenic, which concentrates in brain tumors and can be traced with twin scintillation counters an hour or a day later. A scintillation counter detects radiation.

Dr. Ira T. Nathanson and associates of the same institutions have found they can predict with high

Senator Wants Korea Settled At Conference

U.S. Should Refuse Red China Talks at Geneva, George Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga) proposed today that the United States refuse to discuss the Indochina question with the Chinese Reds at Geneva and concentrate on seeking a Korean settlement.

George, senior Democrat on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview he is opposed to giving the Chinese Communists even the implied recognition he contended is involved in negotiating with them on problems of an area where their troops are not directly involved.

Asks Bipartisan Group

In that connection, he said the Senate ought to be represented in a bipartisan way at next month's five-power meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, to bolster the administration's expressed determination not to let Red China into the United Nations.

Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) of the Foreign Relations Committee agreed the Senate ought to be represented.

"It would be a good opportunity to learn the changing facts of the world at first hand," he said.

Secretary of State Dulles told his news conference yesterday he has made no decision whether to invite a bipartisan congressional group to go with him to Geneva. He said he expects to discuss this soon with key legislative leaders.

"The Russians undoubtedly will put on a drive at Geneva to get the Chinese Communists into the picture and eventually into the United Nations," George said.

Majority Opposed

"I believe a majority of the Senate members of both parties oppose any such recognition for the Chinese Communists and oppose negotiating with them on anything except Korea, where they were directly involved.

"I don't think we ought to join in any negotiations with them about Indochina."

LaRue Juniors To Give Class Play Friday Night

Juniors of the LaRue High School will present their class play, "Faith, Hope and Flarity," Friday night, in the school gymnasium. The time is 8 o'clock.

The story centers on the children of Quadlander Crabbe and his war buddy, Patrick Flarity, who have made a vow that their children would marry. Crabbe has twin daughters, Faith and Hope and Flarity has one son, Terrence. The twins are busy trying to keep Terrence from proposing and he is trying just as hard to keep either one of them from accepting him.

The cast includes Charles Boblenz, Larry James, Barbara Benson, Edith Hoover, Keith Cooper, Allen Culver, Marilyn Seiler, Sue Myers, Paul Trihaft, Sue Brashear, Pete Whitman and Jim Weist.

North Main PTA Group To Buy School Swings

North Main Street PTA had its regular meeting Tuesday night at the school when devotions were given by Rev. Melvin Truex and the speaker for the evening was Mrs. Charlotte Schaeffer. Special music was presented by Rosemary and Nancy Sidenstricker.

Mrs. Walter Wolbert presided at the business meeting which followed when it was announced that a bake sale will be held this Saturday. The purchase of swings for the school playground was also announced. Mrs. Cox' second grade won the room award. Mrs. Gail Holt had charge of the social hour which followed.

Exchange Club Parley Planned Here

350 To Attend Meeting, National President To Speak Sunday

Approximately 350 Exchange Club members and their wives from throughout the state are expected to be in Marion this weekend for the annual spring conference of the Exchange Clubs of Ohio.

The Marion Club will be the host group.

State officers include George W. Conelly of Wauseon, O., president, Arnold O. Lundberg of Toledo, vice president, and Ralph E. Foster of Springfield, secretary and treasurer.

OUTSTANDING GUESTS at the meeting will include J. Benjamin Brick of Atlantic City, N.J., president of the National Exchange Club, who will give an address on Sunday, and Harold Harter of Toledo, national secretary.

Another Sunday speaker will be Professor Edward A. Wright, chairman of the department of theater arts at Denison University, Granville, O.

The two-day conference will get under way with registration beginning at 4 p.m. Saturday on the mezzanine at Hotel Harding, headquarters for the conference. For a social mixer in the ballroom at 8 p.m. Saturday, there will be round and square dancing with Mrs. Cecil Gabler of Marion as instructor and caller.

ACTIVITIES SUNDAY will open with a men's breakfast at 8:30 in the ballroom for which John W. Salisbury of Marion, district governor, will preside. The invocation will be spoken by Rev. W. Lincoln Stafford, pastor of Wesley Methodist Church.

While this is in progress, the wives of Exchange Club members who accompany their husbands to Marion will be entertained at a breakfast in the Plantation Room. Local wives in charge will be Mrs. John Salisbury, Mrs. Jack Kratzer and Mrs. Fred Schultz.

J. BENJAMIN BRICK
National Club President

HAROLD HARTER
National Exchange Secretary

PROF. EDWARD A. WRIGHT
Exchange Club Entertainer

The men's breakfast will be followed by a forum with Mr. Connelly, state president, presiding. This is scheduled for 9:30. Three topics to be under discussion will be "Formation of New Clubs," "Model Airplane Meets" and "New Approach to Club Programs." For these, club members will be divided into three groups.

AT 11 A.M., a meeting is cheduled in which a summary will be given of what was discussed in the three group meetings. For this, Mr. Lundberg, state vice president, will preside.

At the same time, there will be an informal gathering of all wives in the Plantation Room at the Hotel.

Concluding the conference activities will be a banquet at noon Sunday at the YMCA. Included in the program will be the invocation by Rev. Stafford; welcome extended by Fred Schultz, president of the Marion Exchange Club; dinner music by the Polka Dots and Dominoes, composed of Carl Breece, Ronnie Breece, Jimmy Beverly, Larry Walters and Philip Walters; "Character Sketches" by Professor Wright; special music by the Harding High School a cappella choir, under the direction of L. G. Jones; and the address by National President Brick.

Local committee in charge of arrangements is composd D. J. Sansotta, chairman, LeRoy Retterer, George Balsley, Harley Walker, Joe Scherer, Fred Schultz, Jack Kratzer and John Salisbury.

Elswick Trial

5, 1953.

2. Richard Van Way, now of Medina, and formerly of 148 Glad St. A former Yellow Cab Co. driver, he took Mr. and Mrs. Elswick to the Green Camp dump at approximately 9 p.m. on that Saturday.

3. Ralph S. Campbell of 277 Lincoln Ave. After visiting his father-in-law in Green Camp, he went to the Green Camp dump to dump some refuse around 8:45 p.m. that Saturday, where he saw Mr. and Mrs. Elswick. He apparently is the last known person to have seen Mrs. Elswick alive.

4. Gerald H. Green of Green Camp. A Green Camp resident, he called a cab around 12:30 a.m. on Sunday, Dec. 6, 1953, after a man answering Elswick's description and giving his name as "Elswick" came to his door and asked him to do so.

5. LeRoy Lane of 217 N. Seffner Ave. Operator of the Yellow Cab Co., he received a call at 12:26 a.m. that Sunday from a Green Camp man asking for a cab for a man by the name of "Elsworth."

6. Franklin M. Bollinger of 422 Girard Ave. A Yellow Cab Co driver, he answered the early Sunday morning call at Green Camp but could not locate the customer

7. James Lee Clark of 519 Decatur St. He found the body, later identified as that of Mrs. Elswick, at the Green Camp dump around 9 a.m. that Sunday morning.

8. Sheriff M. Glenn Obenour. As Marion County sheriff, he directed the investigation of Mrs. Elswick's death.

9. James McClaskey of 204 Short St. and

10. Robert Lautenslager of Indiana Ave. As deputy sheriffs, they assisted in the investigation of Mrs. Elswick's death.

11. Dr. John W. Bull of Mt. Vernon Ave. A Marion physician, he performed the autopsy on Mrs. Elswick that Sunday afternoon.

12. Dr. E. H. Morgan of Harding Hotel. As Marion County coroner, he witnessed the autopsy of Mrs. Elswick and ruled that her death was caused by strangulation and suffocation from a constriction of the throat.

Following a recess for lunch, the jurors were taken to Green Camp to view the dump where the slaying allegedly took place. In the custody of Bailiff Fred Miller, they were driven there by Sheriff Glenn Obenour and two deputies.

Appearing as the first witness in the murder trial, Clark told the Court that he had gone to the Green Camp village dump around 9 o'clock on the morning of Sunday, Dec. 6, 1953, "to pick up scrap iron" when he saw a hand showing through the debris He was accompanied by his eight-year-old son.

The second witness to take the stand was Deputy McClaskey. He told that he located Elswick at the small house trailer home of William Baker across the road from the Green Camp School around 12 noon on that Sunday.

McClaskey searched him and asked him to accompany him to the dump where they picked up Sheriff Obenour.

The three men returned to the trailer to talk to Baker, who had been in the trailer earlier. Not finding him there, they later went to his daughter's home where they picked him up for questioning.

McClaskey said that he, Elswick and Deputy Robert Lautenslager then went to the Boyd Funeral Home.

"We went into the room where the body was covered with a sheet, with a hand partially covering the face," McClaskey related. "I asked Elswick if that was his wife. He went over to the body, lifted the arm, looked at the body, and said, 'That's my wife.' "

Moloney then wanted to know if McClaskey thought Elswick "appeared to have been drinking."

"That's a hard question to answer," replied the deputy, "He had just gotten up."

"Did you smell liquor on his breath?" questioned Moloney.

McClaskey commented that the smell of liquor was present in the trailer.

"Could you detect liquor on the breath of Elswick after coming from the trailer and on the way to the funeral home," Moloney continued this line of questioning.

The deputy replied that he "did not notice" it. Earlier in his testimony he had expressed the belief that Baker was intoxicated when he was apprehended.

Establishing the fact that he had known Elswick about two years, Frisina said he did not think Elswick became "pugnacious or aggressive" when drunk, in answer to a question from Moloney during cross-examination. Asked if Elswick showed evidence of intoxication, the tavern operator answered, "Not too much."

Van Way testified that he picked up Elswick and a woman in his cab. Saying they wanted to go to "Bellefontaine Ave."

At the intersection of Bellefontaine Ave. and Davids St., Elswick handed him a 10-dollar bill and asked him to buy him a bottle of wine, the cab driver testified.

When he returned with the bottle of wine, Van Way gave the change to Elswick and kept the bottle on the front seat beside him. Then Elswick directed him to take them to the Green Camp dump, Van Way said

Asked about her condition in respect to intoxication, Van Way answered, "I would say she was intoxicated."

As to Elswick's condition, the cab driver testified, "To my estimation, he was not drunk. He had been drinking, but was not drunk."

Moloney's questioning brought out the information that Elswick and the woman were not quarreling, and addressed each other as "Honey."

Campbell told the jurors that he and his two children were visiting his father-in-law in Green Camp when he went to the village dump around 8:45 p.m. to deposit refuse. As he turned into the driveway of the dump his headlights picked up the figures of two persons, a man and a woman, he said, pointing out Elswick as the man.

Elswick and the woman "watched me but didn't bother me," Campbell related. Elswick then asked him if he were going to Prospect, wanting to get a ride, Campbell said.

Campbell described the woman as appearing to "be in her 30's, a little bit heavy, wore a jacket and blue jeans, and her hair was long and black."

The sixth witness for the state was Green, who testified that a man knocked on his door in Green Camp around 12:30 early that Sunday morning and asked him to call a cab. Asking the man his name because the cab company wanted it, Green said, "I thought he said Elswick."

Asked by Carhart if he saw that man in the Courtroom, Green answered that he "believed so" and indicating Elswick, requested that he stand up so he could get a closer look. After a moment's silence, Green answered, "I believe it is the man, but I couldn't actually swear to it."

Dr. Morgan, the coroner, testified that he was called to the dump that Sunday morning where h viewed the body of a woman who "looked 38-40 years old." He described her as "poorly dressed", clothed only in blue jeans and shoes. He said he estimated she had been dead "over six hours."

The coroner said that the body later was removed to the Boyd Funeral Home in Marion where an autopsy, witnessed by him, was performed by Dr. Bull.

Both doctors testified that they noticed evidence of poorly repaired broken bones in her jaw and knee-cap. Moloney asked both doctors if an examination of the contents of the woman's stomach were made in an effort to determine whether she was intoxicated at the time of death They answered negatively, Dr. Morgan adding that it is "very difficult" to detect this condition after death.

Dr. Bull added that there were deep scratches, recently made, on Mrs. Elswick's neck. Asked to tell what caused her death, he answered "suffocation by strangulation." Asked to elaborate on this, he said "as if something had been placed around her neck, shutting off her supply of oxygen."

Deputy Lautenslager testified that he accompanied the body of Mrs. Elswick in the hearse to the funeral home and was present when Elswick identified the body as that of his wife.

Sheriff Obenour related to the jury that he took several photographs when he arrived at the dump that Sunday morning. Eight of these photographs were entered as state's exhibits.

Sheriff Obenour then related that Elswick was questioned that afternoon at the Marion Police Department in the presence of Carhart, Robert Stout, assistant prosecutor, Lautenslager, McClaskey, and Captains Justin Cornely and George Manley of the Marion Police Department.

Burglars Enter Store at LaRue

Cash and Merchandise Valued at $70 Missing

The E. H. Lingo Co., a dry-goods store in LaRue, was robbed last night of cash and merchandise valued at more than $70.

Don Lingo, proprietor of the store, said today it is impossible to determine the exact amount taken. Definitely determined, he said, was the theft of $23 from one cash drawer, two pairs of shoes valued at $10.95 each, two shirts at $4.95 each, at least one $13.95 coat, as well as gloves and other items.

He said considerable damage had been done to merchandise when the thieves ransacked counters throwing it to the floor. Lingo also reported they had torn up a desk hunting money, but had "found everything else but the money that was in it."

The owner said the plate glass in the front door had been shattered and the thieves apparently had crawled in the opening. They left by a door in the rear of the store. The robbery was first detected early this morning by a passerby who reported it to Lingo's nephew in a LaRue hardware store It was then reported to the county sheriff's office.

Marion Teachers To Attend Session For Improvements

Two teachers and an administrator will represent Marion at a conference for improvement of school programs Thursday through Saturday at Ohio State University.

Miss Helen May, Eber Baker Junior High, Miss Clara Gillan, Oak St. School and Harold Edwards, Marion City schools director of instruction, will attend. The conference is called the Committee for Improvement of the Educational Program in Ohio of the Ohio Educational Association.

Speakers will include Dr. Henry Hill, president of George Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. Orville Alexander of Southern Illinois University; W. Hughes Miller, president of the Alpha Chapter of the Professional Bookmen of America; and Dr. Willard Givens, former executive secretary of the National Education Association.

The Marion representatives are sent by the Marion Education Association.

McCarthy and Cohn replied that Secretary of the Army Stevens and John G. Adams, assistant Army counsel, had sought to "blackmail" the subcommittee to drop an inquiry into alleged subversion in the Army. Eisenhower told reporters last week he believes Stevens and believes in him.

McCarthy late yesterday called—and hastily canceled—a subcommittee meeting to consider public investigations into two other fields while charting the course for the Army hearing.

He wants to probe:

1. The cases of "91 individuals now working in defense plants who have records of Communist activities."

2. "Alleged bribery and fraud" in government spending in Alaska.

The move ran up against a resolution adopted by the seven-man subcommittee binding them to stage hearings on no other matters until they have cleaned up the investigation of this one.

Personal Property Tax Payments Here Lagging

With only one week remaining before the deadline, less than half of the 4,000 Marion County eligible taxpayers have filed their personal property tax returns, County Auditor Maurice C. Clements revealed today.

He said only about 1,900 forms have been received and reminded taxpayers that the deadline is March 31, and that his office is open daily except Sunday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Required to file are all persons, partnerships, associations or corporations engaged in business, and all residents owning intangible property such as stocks, bonds, and notes.

Reserve Officers Name Pfleiderer New Leader

Officers, headed by Lt. Cmdr G. W. Pfleiderer, were elected at a meeting of Marion Area Chapter Reserve Officers Association, Tuesday night in the Ohio Edison Co. terminal building. Lt. Col. D A. Cuthbert was named first vice president, Lt. R E. Pancost, second vice president and Capt. D.E. Garver, secretary-treasurer. Lt. Cmdr. Pfleiderer succeeds Lt. Hubert H. Goerlich as head of the chapter.

The officers were elected to represent the chapter at the state convention to be held at Dayton April 23-25. The newly elected officers will take over their duties at the next meeting April 20.

Rotary Club Hears Newspaper Discussion by Star Executives

A panel discussion by three executives of The Marion Star featured the regular weekly meeting of the Marion Rotary Club Tuesday noon at the Hotel Harding.

Speaking on "Newspaper Work Is Our Business" were Smith H. Witter, business manager, Jack Maxwell, editor, and Don T. Grace, advertising manager.

Mr. Maxwell, who spoke first, discussed various problems confronting the news deparument of the paper and pointed out some of the major differences between newspapering and other businesses. He also described some of his past experiences in newspapering to illustrate how a news staff reacts when confronted with a major story.

Mr Grace covered the value of newspapers as advertising media, pointing out that virtually everyone reads newspapers for the local and national news, and that consequently the paper is an excellent sales vehicle for retail merchants and manufacturers.

He listed the various types of advertising, discussed proper advertising techniques and pointed out that from an advertising standpoint, a newspaper exists to serve the businesses in its community.

Mr. Witter touched on several interesting phases of the business, including the fact that the newsprint purchased for The Star comes from Canada. He said The Star uses about 100 tons of paper a month.

On behalf of the circulation department, Mr Witter also lauded the 200 Marion and area newspaperboys for The Star, whom he characterized as Marion's "youngest businessmen." He pointed out that very few newspaperboys ever become juvenile delinquents because of the training received and the time consumed in handling their jobs.

Mr Witter introduced David Axthelm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Axthelm, of 286 Elm St., as a typical Star newspaperboy.

A guest at the meeting was Kenneth Hubbard of Marion.

Three Minor Auto Mishaps Reported

Three minor, no injury traffic accidents were investigated on Marion streets during the last 24 hours by city police. The state highway patrol and sheriff's deputies reported no accidents on county highways for the second day in a row.

Two sheets of plate glass valued at $180 were broken as the result of a collision in front of 660 E. Center St. at 8:16 a.m. today. Involved were a Mansfield Plate Glass Co truck driven by Jules Frankel, 36, of Mansfield and a car driven by Harold O. Kennedy, 47, of 660 E. Center St.

In one of the two remaining fender bender mishaps, a farm tractor driven by Orval J. Butler, 45, of 136 E. Fairground St. struck a car parked in front of 498 E Center St. owned by Clive Oliver of 521 Park Blvd The collision occurred at 5:45 p.m. Tuesday.

Only other collision reported occurred at 12:16 p.m. Tuesday in front of the Union Depot on W. Center St. It involved cars driven by Glen R. Millisor 21, of 166 Plymouth St. and Edna Prettyman of near New Bloomington.

Highway Patrol Stops 11 Motorists

Eleven traffic arrests were made yesterday by the Marion post of the state highway patrol.

The following were arrested and posted a bond for appearance later in Municipal Court: Chester Wagner, 45, Eaton, speeding; Charles Blousser, 52, Logan, passing on a curve; Richard A. Kensey, 26, Columbus, failure to obey a stop sign; James H. Modesitt, 32, Toledo, speeding; Edwin M. Henes, 52, Menominee, Mich., speeding; and Frank T. Canon, 45, Berkley, Mich., speeding. John Myers, 41, of near Marion, was cited for Municipal Court for failure to obey a stop sign.

Arrested and fined were F. J. Watts, 43, Cleveland, Tenn., unsafe operation, $50 and costs by Mayor Don Healea of Cardington; John Harding, 40, Richmond, Ind., speeding, $15 and costs, Mayor Healea; and Pauline M. Lyons, Martel, passing a stopped school bus, $15 and costs in Municipal Court.

Also arrested was Joe K Paciona, 27, Matoaka, W Va., unsafe operation. He posted a bond for appearance in Mayor's Court in Upper Sandusky Friday.

accuracy whether a lump in the breast is benign or cancerous

They do this by injecting the patient with radioactive potassium, which concentrates in cancer and, as a rule, goes in very small quantity to benign tumors.

While the scientists emphasize that the method is not a sure test for breast cancers they indicate that their figures leave no doubt but that patients now may have a good idea before an operation as to whether the lump is innocent or whether it is cancer. The latter verdict calls for extensive surgery, including removal of the breast.

The test was made on 100 women with benign and malignant breast tumors None of the benign tumors took up suspicious quantities of the radioactive potassium.

The science writers in another interview were told that 18 patients with localized cancer of the voice box (larynx) treated during the last four years by multimillion-volt X-rays now show no evidence of the disease.

They were not called cured Five years must pass following treatment before any cancer patient is considered cured.

The report was made by Dr. John G Trump engineer, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who worked with doctors attached the Lahey Clinic here.

Losing Battle

By George Sokolsky

Sen. Alexander Wiley makes a point that should be obvious to all but is overlooked because historic changes are difficult to note at the time that they occur. He says:

SOKOLSKY

"Let us first note that Soviet Russia has demonstrated that techniques of internal destruction are integral parts of its foreign policy. The USSR has, in effect, revolutionized the entire intelligence and related fields in international relations.

"It has placed espionage on an assembly-line basis, graduating hundreds and thousands of agents, expertly trained as cadres in the interrelated skills of agitation, insurrection, espionage, sabotage, and subversion in countries throughout the world."

This has never occurred before in any country. Espionage used to be an art devoted to the single purpose of obtaining military secrets and policy plans. To "agitation, insurrection, espionage, sabotage and subversion" should be added "infiltration," which is the strongest weapon because it places directly inside a government agents of another government.

THE VERY EXISTENCE of such a weapon has a damaging effect since literally everyone becomes suspicious of everyone else. The fact that there could be even one Alger Hiss, one Harry Dexter White, one William Remington lays all employes of government open to the prospect of screenings, investigations, clearances, etc. It is a demoralizing condition.

In a report prepared by the Committee on Foreign Relations with the assistance of the Library of Congress, dealing with the "Adequacy of United States Laws with Respect to Offenses Against National Security," from which the above quotation from Sen. Wiley was taken, this idea is emphasized that while only a fraction of one per cent of those engaged in the British-American-Canadian atomic energy program were in a position to give Soviet Russia any vital information, the Russians got the information:

"But, the Soviet network penetrated that tiny fraction of one per cent and achieved the remarkable feat of stealing crucial secrets through Klaus Fuchs, Bruno Pontecorvo, Alan Nunn May, and David Greenglass—all of whom possessed the variety of relatively rare requisites to secure valuable information about our atomic program."

WHEN, THEREFORE, it is suggested that all the investigations lead to nothing because they usually only turn up small men, the answer must be that who could have been more obscure than Julius Rosenberg or his brother-in-law, David Greenglass?

Nevertheless, Rosenberg penetrated two of the most secret areas of the world, Los Alamos and Fort Monmouth; he arranged to place his cells in both organizations, he secured cover for his agents; got the stuff out; and prevented his agents from being caught. It was hoped that the Fort Monmouth investigation would produce the techniques of Rosenberg's operations.

Congressional investigations may be a last opportunity to discover how an obscure personality like Julius Rosenberg could do so magnificent a job for his principals.

The Constitution in the current situation really protects traitors and it may one day be necessary to amend the Constitution to safeguard this country against the new weapons that the Soviet Universal State uses against us. This is the constitutional definition of treason:

"Treason against the United States shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

NEITHER CONGRESS nor the courts may enlarge on this definition. That is why most traaitors are convicted of perjury or not convicted at all. It is growing increasingly difficult to prove that a person is adhering to our enemies and if faced by the question, he need only take a plea under the Fifth Amendment and he is safe.

To prove by "two witnesses to the same overt act" is rarely possible, because the nature of this penetration is so complex and is directed by a vast international power that can order men from country to country, cause them to disappear as though they were dead, provide them with coverage or kill them as may be necessary.

Corroborative witnesses thus become difficult to obtain. In the Alger Hiss case, this was a primary issue and finally a typewriter became a witness against a man.

Not all problems can be solved swiftly, by the twist of the wrist. This one requires thorough study. As of today, the agents of the Kremlin are not losing the battle of America.

Audit Discloses Alabama Bank Short $75,000

CLIO, Ala. (AP)—The fear which began gnawing at citizens here three weeks ago when banker Royall Reynolds disappeared became an awful truth yesterday—an audit showed a $75,000 deficit at the Merchants Exchange.

An official who helped audit books of the little unchartered money exchange declined use of his name but said the check revealed at least that much money is missing.

He added, however, that the $75,000 figure does not include personal property which Reynolds has promised to throw in to help make up any deficit.

Reynolds, who was president of the defunct Exchange, said he would dispose of his home, car and government bonds in an effort to pay off depositors. There was no estimate of the value of his personal holdings.

Reynolds, released from jail temporarily to help with the audit, was put back in his cell after the check was completed. He is charged in three warrants with embezzling funds of the Exchange while president.

Depositors have filed unofficial claims for about $167,000, but less than $87,000 of Exchange money is available.

LIMA STRIKE OVER

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Full production was to be resumed today at the Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton Corp. after a strike which lasted less than one day. Spokesmen for the shovel, crane and road machinery manufacturing plant and Local 106, CIO-United Automobile Workers Union said the strike resulted from the firing of an employe who refused to work outside his job classification. The man was reinstated.

Showman Charged As Panther Scare Proves To Be Fake

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The man who reported a black panther missing from his animal show has been charged with making a false report.

The black panther scare had hundreds of residents in the Los Angeles area in a dither week before last. The beast supposedly escaped from his cage shortly after Wayne Roberts' show started for Phoenix, Ariz.

"The whole story was a hoax," Police Chief William H. Parker said yesterday. "We were pretty certain of that from the first, but it has taken a lot of checking to substantiate it."

Scores of frightened citizens reported they had seen the black panther.

Chief Parker says Roberts concocted the whole story and kept it going so he could get a job as publicity man with a carnival.

Knife in Back

By Victor Riesel

Hollywood will forgive me, I hope, for intruding on it during this week of secret deliberations over the forthcoming Academy Awards. But I'm certain it won't tarnish the glamor of their "Oscars" if I point out that we are preoccupied with pats on the back, instead of the knives in our back so skillfully slipped in by pro-Soviet movie makers across the world.

RIESEL

Our own movie producers should know that even as applause greets each Academy Award winner at the big Hollywood hoe-down, hisses greet America's name and reputation in the theaters of Japan. What's more, our Japanese friends —by the millions — are being turned against us by motion picture clippings borrowed from Hollywood's generous film libraries by some very polite Tokyo producers who just asked for them.

THE NIPPONESE film makers got thousands of feet of film from us—although they have not produced an anti-Communist picture since 1945. Unhappily, accurate reporting requires that it be said that this noble 1945 effort, entitled "Life In A Siberian POW Camp", was suppressed by our own authorities in Japan to avoid being rude to our then allies, the Russians.

The Japanese, too, now select their 10 best movies. This year four of the 10 "Best" were thoroughly anti-American or based on Communist novels. I would do better for the moment, if I quoted the amazing Dick Deverall, the AFL's representative in Tokyo—a man whom the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences would do well to fly in from the Orient as a speaker. They could spot him in between Donald O'Connor's prancing. No sense spoiling the entire evening.

"Last night we saw the latest anti-U.S. film, "The Second World War", produced by Shin Toho," Deverall reported recently to his superiors on the AFLs Free Trade Union Committee, headed by the federations vice-president, Matt Woll.

"IT IS MAINLY made up of wretchedly edited shots of Rommel in North Africa. It works in Roosevelt, Stalin, Churchill, the invasion of Europe — but nothing about who began it or any real pictures of either the Japanese or the Germans in action.

"On the other hand—and this is the point of the movie—it concentrates on American weapons: cannon, tanks, planes, the dropping of the sticks of bombs, flamethrows and, finally, the atomic bomb.

"The movie opens with the grim statement that peace seems almost impossible. But the main purpose of this Shin Toho movie is just pure horror over the strength of America and its destructive power.

"Last night, as American planes were shown bombing Berlin, you could hear the sharp hiss of horror that came from the Japanese in the house. The flame - thrower really brought another hiss.

"I would ask our friends in Hollywood to close all American film libraries to any Japanese at any time until the Japanese movie folks clean up their stable and adopt a code of ethics which will make it impossible to deluge the screens of Japan with obvious propaganda pictures which give the Japanese an anti-American view. Practically all of the material in the movie last night came from U. S. Film libraries."

THESE JAPANESE films become powerful propaganda weapons in the hands of enemies of the United Nations. Several of the best Nippon-produced anti - U. S. films have been dispatched to Peking. There the pictures are dubbed with Chinese sound tracks. And they are shown throughout the occupied mainland — and elsewhere in the Orient.

Some of these pictures, made by friends of the pro - Communist, anti-AFL, anti-CIO Sohyo (Japanese Federation of Labor) are subtle. They are exquisitely done —and they are designed to "discourage youngsters from joining the new Hontai, the security force."

It is this Hontai force on which we must count to prevent the Sohyo's pro - Soviet labor units from rioting or sabotaging our installations, or crippling the Nipponese rails and mines. If, for lack of manpower, the Hontai fails to hold its lines, our troops must swing into action against Japanese rioters. That would be lethal to our reputation for decency and democracy among our sensitive allies in the Orient.

The next moves — and the next movies — are up to us! Certainly it is not wrong for us to fight as hard for our way as the friends of the Soviet Union fight for theirs.

Pay for Housewives

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

Should housewives be paid a salary for their services in the home?

This problem has popped up periodically on the American scene ever since women won equal rights —and went right on from there.

"A wife gets tired of working for her groceries and an occasional crumb of praise," writes an "indignant lady" in a letter to the editor. "Her husband gets cash wages, why shouldn't he pay his wife a salary, too?"

HAL BOYLE

Such letters always start a torrent of argument in the public prints. But you know what I suspect about those letters? I suspect they aren't written by "indignant ladies" at all. I suspect most of them are written by nasty old husbands.

—:—

THE REASON for my suspicion is simple. I made an informal poll on this topic. No wife I talked to really wanted to be paid a salary for performing her household chores. But, surprisingly, many husbands thought it a great idea.

The women who opposed a weekly "wife wage" can be divided into two classes, and their views summarized as follows:

1. High-minded—"No amount of the mere money could compensate a wife for the labor, love, and tender care she lavishes upon her family. The debt her husband owes her is spiritual, not financial."

2. High-handed—"Why should I let that oaf I am tied to dribble out a few paltry bucks a week, just when I have finally got him trained to bring his whole paycheck home in his mouth, like a sensible husband ought to?"

The wives in the first group were mostly brides; those in the second group were veterans. For some reason wives, as they forget their honeymoon, begin to remember money. No one can say this is true of all women, of course, for who ever could get to know all women.

I THINK IT WOULD give a man back some of the authority he has lost in the home," she said. "I know the guy who pays me my salary is my boss. Neiher of us in any doubt about that. Well, if my wife took a straight living wage from me, wouldn't she have to admit that I was the boss in the house? Believe me, I'd make her earn every penny, afid"—his eyes lit up in dreamy joy—"I'd make her say 'thank you' and on payday, too."

Several thrifty husbands figured they could save money (and have more to spend on themselves) by paying their wives a fixed wage.

"Wives complain a womans work is never done," remarked one fellow, "but it's only because they never get around to doing it. My wife claims she works 80 hours a week, but I bet that if I made her keep a time card and punch a time clock, it would show she doesn't really hit the ball more than 10 hours a week.

"The other 70 hours she spends napping on the couch, running up the telephone bill, playing gin rummy with her friends, or giving me free advice.

"I'm perfectly willing to pay her a dollar an hour for the 10 hours a week she's actually on the job—and throw in her bed and board for nothing. What could be fairer than that?"

"Nothing!" shouted another husband, and the others chimed in: "She's a lucky girl."

"She couldn't do that well in China."

"You're spoiling her. Next thing you know she'd want double pay for overtime, and two weeks vacation."

—:—

AN ELDERLY HUSBAND with the air of a faded wolf said he'd endorse this kind of matrimonial pay if his wife were compelled to put part of it into pension fund, so that in time he could retire her from household drudgery. Asked what he would do then, the old scoundrel said cheerfully:

"Put a younger wife on the payroll."

Something tells me we'll never have "wife pay" in this country—not while so many husbands are in favor of it.

Superintendent Quits Bucyrus Hospital Duties

BUCYRUS —Mayor Frank P. Sitler today announced the resignation, effective April 15, of Hal E. Stout, superintendent of Bucyrus City Hospital. Stout, who has been here since March 1, 1950, will resume his former position as superintendent of Fostoria City Hospital.

Supt. Sout's salary at the local hospital is $85 a week, or $4,420 a year. He said today he will receive $5,000 at Fostoria.

Mayor Sitler commented, "Supt. Stout has done a fine job here, and his resignation is being accepted with deep regret." Sitler said that no replacement for Sout is in sight yet.

Supt. Stout is leaving just as the redecoration program for the entire building is nearing completion. The halls are being painted a sage green, while rooms are being painted various pastel colors. It is hoped the entire program will be completed in time for Hospital Day, an event of May.

Supt. Stout was also city editor of the Fostoria Daily Review for 20 years. He was the city's vice-mayor for six years and for four years was president of the Fostoria City Council.

SLATED AT CALEDONIA

Those who attended the meeting in Caledonia Sunday night conducted by Seventh-Day Adventist laymen, felt well repaid. C. H. Fench of Galion spoke. A moving picture was shown by Elder Philip Knox of California. The program also included a solo by Elder O. W. Fowler of Kirkpatrick. This Sunday another service will be held in Caledonia on the square. The subject will be "The Hope of the Ages," with religious moving pictures to be shown. A song service will begin at 7:30 p.m.

WIN TOP RATINGS

BUCYRUS—Two students from Chatfield High School will participate in the state music contest to be held at Bowling Green University Saturday, April 10. The students are Martha Brose and Robert Slater. Both students received ratings of "1" or "superior" Saturday during the district music contest held at Tiffin.

Girl Scout Group Here Holds Friendship Party

More than 600 Girl Scouts, leaders and mothers attended the Juliet Low birthday party Saturday morning in the Ohio Theater. The program, presented in costume, was planned by a planning board made up of Intermediate Girl Scouts and included songs, skits and dances.

An international friendship theme was carried out throughout the program and songs and dances were interpretive of the various countries. At the close mittens containing the birthday contributions of the Scouts were hung on a line on the stage. The contributions amounted to $85.31 which will be placed in the friendship fund to carry on the international friendship program of sending girls from the United States to other countries and bringing girls from other countries here.

Senior Scouts were ushers and hostesses and serving as mistress of ceremonies was Sandra Smith, winner of an audition held recently at WMRN. Sue Brashear directed the flag ceremony and Ruth Mason called the roster for the placing of the mittens. The mittens were made by the Scouts in their meetings.

In addition to the program there was a display of scout craft including a replica of the Girl Scout chalet in Switzerland.

Outlasted Fellow Senators

Seniority System Aided M'Carthy's Rise to Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McCarthy reached his present position of power—chairman of a Senate subcommittee investigating Communists in the government—by sticking around.

No one planned to put him in his present position of power. It happened that way through the seniority system, an ancient Senate custom, which automatically moves a man up to chairman if he outlasts those ahead of him.

When the Wisconsin Republican first came to the Senate in 1947, after his election the previous November, he was assigned by the older Republicans to what was then the Committee on Expenditures in Executive Departments, as well as to the Banking Committee.

He was comparatively obscure then. The expenditures committee post he got was no plum. It ranked in importance below such committees as those on foreign relations, armed services, labor or finance.

McCARTHY'S CHIEF interest then was housing, handled by the Banking Committee. Looking for Communists doesn't seem to have been even a gleam in his eye in 1947 and he probably never dreamed the hum-drum expenditures committee eventually would afford him the means of making headlines.

Five other Republicans were on the committee ahead of McCarthy. One of them, Sen. Aiken of Vermont, was chairman since the Republicans had a majority in Congress.

The top, or ranking, member among the minority Democrats was Sen. McClellan of Arkansas, patiently waiting to be chairman when the Democrats got a majority.

Ironically, McCarthy had won his Senate seat from Sen. LaFollette of Wisconsin, in 1946. LaFollette was one of the authors of the congressional reorganization act that year.

BECAUSE OF THIS act the work of the expenditures committee was expanded and, as its investigating arm, it had a subcommittee to study government operations at all levels.

Looking for Communists was not then its main job, but later became so under McCarthy.

McClellan becaue chairman of the full expenditures committee in 1949 when the Democrats won a congressional majority. By that time he had moved by seniority to become ranking member of the now Republican minority.

What happened to those other five Republicans who had been ahead of him in 1947? They're all still around but by then had, for one reason or another, moved on to other committees.

This left McCarthy in line to be chairman if the Republicans ever got control of Congress again.

When McClellan moved in as chairman he could have made himself chairman of the investigating subcommittee. Instead, he named Sen. Hoey (D-C) chairman of it. Hoey won praise for the fairness of his investigations, few or none of which involved Communist-hunting.

—:—

IN 1952 THE NAME of the Committee on Expenditures in the Executive Departments was changed to the Committee on Government Operations. Why? Because of some confusion with the work of other committees.

For instance, the Appropriations Committee's main task was to examine government expenditures. Under the new name McClellan's committee had even broader powers than before.

It could look into practically anything that involved government operations. But it was also in 1952, in the November elections, that the Republicans won control of Congress again.

So when the Republicans took over in 1953 McCarthy automatically became chairman of the Committee on Government Operations and also took on the chairmanship of its investigations subcommittee.

By that time he had made a career of Communist-hunting and that's primarily what he used his subcommittee for.

2 Chicago Children Die In Housing Project Fire

CHICAGO (AP) — Two children died in a fire which swept their Ashburn housing project home on the South Side Monday night.

The dead were Patricia Traylor, 4, and her brother Bernard, 3. Their mother Agnes, 40, escaped with three older children, Thomas, 14, Gilbert Jr., 6, and Caroline, 5. The mother and Thomas suffered burns when they attempted to rescue Patricia and Bernard.

Firemen said Mrs. Traylor told them she placed some laundry to dry over a gas heater before retiring. Her husband was at work.

9 Men Plead Guilty, Are Fined $1,100 in Army Depot Thefts

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Nine men have been fined a total of $1,100 in connection with "share-the-wealth" thefts of $7,000 worth of government property from Army depots at Schenectady and nearby Voorheesville.

The nine, who pleaded guilty in federal court yesterday to charges of stealing tools and clothing from the depots, were among 28 civilian employes arrested by the FBI last November.

Federal authorities said the men had taken the goods from the Army storehouses and set them aside. Then, authorities said, the men would tell friends where the loot was, and the friends would pick it up.

James Fan Club Meets

Initial meeting of a new Allen James Fan Club in Marion held recently was attended by 35 members, with the WLW-C television personality as honor guest. The club was formed from a smaller group of fans which had organized previously with Miss Marilyn Creasap elected as president. Place of the meeting which opened the club roll to the large group was the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Warren at 582 N. Main St.

Devotions were by Miss Carol Jo Perry, and reading of rules and regulations was by the secretary, Miss Ruby Hanson. Discussions of future plans was led by the president. Following, games were in charge of Miss Ellen Quay and refreshments were served.

Two-Word Sentence Is Handed Deaf Defendant

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Harold L. Hunter, convicted last month of arson, appeared in Common Pleas Court yesterday for sentencing.

Two words were typed on a sheet of paper and held up before the totally deaf defendant. They read: "Life imprisonment."

The life sentence was mandatory. The 42-year-old man had been convicted previously three times, in 1931, 1933 and 1938.

Cleveland's Opera Season Will Begin With April Booking

Margaret Harshaw, who has won widespread fame as a Wagnerian soprano, will be among the outstanding artists who will return the German composer's music to Cleveland when the Metropolitan Opera is presented in that city April 19 to 24.

Miss Harsaw will be the Elizabeth in "Tannhaeuser" on Tuesday evening, April 20. The opera was last presented in Cleveland in 1946.

In the cast with Miss Harshaw will be George London in the title role, Jerome Hines as Landgraf Hermann, George London as Wolfram, Brian Sullivan as Walther and Astrid Varnay as Venus.

Other operas to be presented in the Cleveland season are Donizetti's "Lucia di Lammermoor," Monday evening, April 19; Bizet's "Carmen," Wednesday afternoon, April 21; Gounods "Faust," Wednesday evening, April 21; Verdi's "Aida," Thursday evening, April 22; Puccini's "La Boheme," Friday evening, April 23; Rossinis "The Barber of Seville," Saturday afternoon, April 24 and Verdi's "Il Trovatore," Saturday evening, April 24.

Worker Becomes Human Cannonball As Boiler Explodes

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A termite exterminator was fired through a coal chute like a human cannonball yesterday when a boiler exploded.

Ray Jordan, 41, landed 40 feet away just shy of a concrete driveway, picked himself up and started running. He was hospitalized with burns, but his condition was reported to be good.

Fire Chief R. L. Lampley said the blast was believed to have been caused by an antitermite solution coming in contact with a pilot light in the boiler. Flames destroyed the one-story frame residence.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK — Stocks gave ground today in a rather moderate manner with spots of resistance to the decline appearing in scattered areas.

The decline was apparent from the start and carried into the early afternoon. Gains and losses with few exceptions were below a point with the emphasis on the losing side of the line.

Aircrafts behaved in a highly irregular manner.

Chrysler, which announced it is testing a new auto turbine engine, was slightly higher against the lower trend of the auto division.

The volume of business in the market was restrained as prices fell and came to less than yesterday's 2,180,000 shares.

In the list of losers was Republic Steel, General Motors, U.S. Rubber, Boeing, American Telephone, General Electric, Southern Railway, and Texas Co.

Higher were Douglas Aircraft, Distillers Corp., American Woolen, and Allied Chemical.

Recovery of an automobile stolen Sunday night was reported today by city police. The car, owned by Wendell H. Kasler of 156 Park Blvd, was reported stolen from in front of 126 S. Main St. sometime between 10 p.m. Monday and 1 a.m. Tuesday. Police found it abandoned on Sargent St. near E. Church St. at 5:25 p.m. Tuesday. Kasler was notified and the car was returned to him.

2 Missing Children Located, Police Say

A 15-year-old Marion boy and a 14-year-old Marion girl reported missing from their homes yesterday have both been located, police reported today.

Police Chief Thomas Coon said the parents of the girl, Phyllis Large of 920 E. Mark St., called police yesterday and reported she returned home at 10 p.m. Monday. Her stepfather, Delbert Kerr, reported to police Monday that she had been missing since Sunday evening.

The boy, Frank Robert Van Wey of 1012 Oak Grove Ave. was located in Kentucky by his parent's, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Wey. The report to police was that the youth was taken to Green Camp at 9:45 a.m. Monday morning by his father and had not returned home.

Conservation Plans Receive Board's Okay

Supervisors Discuss Activities for 1954, Approve Agreements

Conservation and demonstration plans for 1954 were approved at a recent board of supervisors meeting of the Marion County Soil Conservation District. The meeting was held in the board's office.

A total of 482 acres were approved for conservation plans on four farms The farms are Green Camp School farm, Big Island Township, 160 acres, Ervin Porter, Green Camp, 73, Paul Swavel, Salt Rock, 127, and A. B Firstenberger, Bowling Green, 122

Initial Agreements

Initial agreements were approved for seven farms They were Richard Dean, Montgomery Township, 107 acres, Lowell McWade, Bowling Green, 83, D D Moyer, Pleasant, 62, Chester Swavel, Grand, 347 Ralph Sickmiller, Tully, 120, William S Guthery, Bowling Green, 140, and Marion County Children's Home, Marion, 60

The supervisors announced that seperate demonstration tours will be held for people interested in studying farm ponds, tile drainage, grass waterways and farm woodlands.

A revised memorandum of understanding with the U S Department of Agriculture was studied and it was announced that district signs for cooperators will be ready soon.

Supervisors present at the meeting were Roland Leeper, chairman, Calvin Baldinger, Arthur Isler, Carl Seiter and John E Ruth. Others at the meeting included Arthur Smith, county agricultural agent, C. O. Steele, area conservationist, W. L. Williams, E E Weaver and O J Retterer Sr of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service.

Cake Dinner

A buckwheat cake supper was held for the supervisors before the meeting at the home of Mr and Mrs Art Smith Guests at the supper included Mrs Sheldon H Vannoy Greenville, Mr and Mrs O J Retterer Mr and Mrs Edwin Weaver, Mr and Mrs W L Wilhams, Mr and Mrs Roland Leeper, Marion, C O Steele, Columbus Mr and Mrs Calvin Baldinger and Mr and Mrs John Ruth, near Marion, H H. Bad Weather Cuts Wildlife Numbers

COLUMBUS — March snow and cold weather combine with the perennial shortage of food and cover to kill many game animals, according to R. K. Davis, extension wildlife conservationist

Farm game animals lose weight and condition throughout the winter Most years, they have little or no reserve body fat to draw on by February and March and many of them die he says

Manure spread on farm fields contains weed and crop seeds that help tide wildlife over these lean months. Manure spread near cover in which pheasant and quail winter is of most value to them

Prompt spreading of manure puts nutrients in the soil instead of down barnyard drains and at the same time helps feed undernourished game birds, Davis adds

Marion Dairymen Given State Awards

Agronomist Finds Available Amount Of Plant Nitrogen

COLUMBUS O , — From 10 to 240 pounds of nitrogen an acre are released to plants by organic matter in the average Ohio soils each year, Ray Linville, extension agronomist, says

Here is how he arrived at the figures There are two million pounds of soil in a six-inch layer on an acre If three per cent is organic matter there are 60,000 pounds of organic matter in an acre of soil six inches deep

He said about five per cent or 3,000 pounds of the organic matter is nitrogen Two to four per cent of the nitrogen becomes available to plants each year That s the 60 to 120 pounds of nitrogen available to plants each year

Linville said the amount of nitrogen that becomes available depends on bacterial action in the soil' Moisture, temperature and acidity of the soil affect the rate at which bacteria change unavailable nitrogen into available nitrogen

The specialist said organic matter tests of soils give a more accurate indication of nitrogen content of soils than nitrate tests Nitrates which are the available form of nitrogen, vary with weather conditions

The standard soil test run by the Ohio State University soils inventory laboratory shows organic matter content

OSU Expert Recommends 5 Oat Varieties

COLUMBUS — Oats varieties recommended for Ohio farms in 1954 are Missouri 0205 Clinton 59 Ajax, Shelby and Andrew D R Dodd, extension agronomist at Ohio State University, says

Race 7 stem rust reduced oat yields on some Ohio farms last year Missouri 0205, Ajax and Andrew are resistant to that disease, while Clinton 59, and Shelby are susceptible As for race 8 stem rust, Clinton 59 and Shelby are resistant while Missouri 0205, Ajax, and Andrew are susceptible

Dodd advised Ohio farmers to split their acreage between those varieties resistant to those 2 strains of stem rust He said it is impossible to predict which strain will cause most damage this year It will probably be race 7, he adds

Missouri 0205 yielded 9 per cent more than Clinton 59 in 1953 Dodd said it has high yields on several years' tests It is resistant to smut, has high test weight, and matures about 3 days earlier than Clinton 59

He said Clinton 59 is particularly well adapted to Ohio farms south of U S Route 40 and southern Ohio Clinton 59 is particularly well adapted to other areas of Ohio

A new variety Cloverland will be planted by seed growers for seed increase this year It is more resistant to disease than present varieties

Dodd said Cloverland should be available to all farmers wanting it by 1956 There will be enough to plant about 10 000 acres in 1955

Farmers wanting information on recommended varieties for 1954 can get extension bulletin 225 from county extension offices.

Developments In Breeding of Cows Revealed

Cattlemen From 30 Counties Learn of New Methods at Meeting

New developments in breeding of cattle were discussed at a meeting of the Northern Ohio Breeders Association in Tiffin recently.

Attending were about 200 farmers from 30 Ohio counties, including a group from Marion County. Voting delegates attending from the county were LeRoy Mack, Gerald Rasey, Dick Cusick, Cletus Uhl, Clarence Gracely and Dick Brooks. Brooks is county director of the association.

The group heard a talk by Dr. R. J. McDonald, who told of a new method of using frozen semen for artificial insemination.

Dr. Scarseth Speaks

The breeders, meeting at the Clinton Rural School in Tiffin, also heard Dr. George Scarseth, director of the American Farm Research Association at Lafayette, Ind., discuss "rooting through some interesting facts."

Five members of the association were given awards for 10 years of service. They were: C. C. Drake, Williams County; Lloyd Martin of the association's laboratory; Steve Mauer, field man; Charles Hansen, Wood County; and Paul Dammeyer, Lorain County.

The association's annual report showed that total assets rose from $363,476.75 in 1952 to $389,408.21 in 1953. A net savings of $8,948.74 was recorded from Feb. 1, 1953 to Jan. 30, 1954.

The report said 122,964 first time cows were bred, an increase of 3.3 per cent. Holstein bulls bred the highest per cent, 48, followed in order by Guernsey, Jersey, Brown Swiss, Ayrshire, Angus, Hereford and Shorthorn.

More than 84 per cent of the association's services were for dairy bulls, the rest for beef bulls.

Cow Population Down

Dairy cow population in the association's 30 counties dropped 1,200 head last year, the report showed. In 1953 there were 387,300 compared with 388,500 in 1952. The recent high was 1946 when there were 432,900 head.

The association reported a total membership of 27,147 for the year. Belmont, Knox and Richland counties signed the most new members. Lorain and Stark Counties led in breeding the most cows.

The report also showed the growth in total cows bred. In 1940 there were 675 cows bred, in 1945, 19,339; in 1950, 81,950; in 1952, 119,045; and in 1953, 122,964.

Farm Briefs

Ten Marion County Women have signed up for the Home Demonstration re-upholstering project scheduled to begin March 31. The first re-upholstering project this year, it will be held in Peeasant School.

—:—

With an average of 11,711 pounds of milk and 426 pounds of butterfat, the 12-cow herd of registered Holstein-Friesians owned by Lewis Gottfried Jr., Upper Sandusky, Ohio completed their test year recently. Their production averaged approximately 18 quarts daily for each cow in the herd for the year. Testing was carried on under the official Herd Improvement Registry program of The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

—:—

H. F. Geckle and Sons of near Marion have sold five head of cows and heifers to D. R. Hull, Junction City. The animals are purebred milking shorthorns.

—:—

The six-cow herd of registered Holstein-Friesians, owned by Max Conklin, Delaware, completed their test year recently. The herd averaged 11,989 pounds of milk and 476 pounds of butterfat. An average of about 20 quarts daily for each cow was recorded.

—:—

Richard W. Brooks has been promoted to the position of manager of the McMillen Feed Company's order and credit department in Marion. Brooks, a native of Upper Sandusky, replaces Charles Christiansen who has been transferred to Memphis, Tenn.

—:—

Charles W. Hempy of near Marion has recently purchased the registered Brown Swiss bull, Tamarind's King George, from J. Ray Parrott and J. H. Allen of Kenton. The announcement was made by the Brown Swiss Cattle Breeder's Association.

Fineness and neutralizing power are two factors to consider when buying liming materials.

Grass Silage Is Cheaper, Farmer Finds

The most efficient and time-saving farm operation possible is Dwight Heckathorn's goal. A look at the 84-acre farm, northwest of Marion, shows that Dwight has gone a long way toward his goal.

Three examples of Heckathorn's work show the progress to date: 1. hay feeding; 2. lamb and sheep care; and 3. grass silage program.

WHEN HECKATHORN'S barn burned down in 1949, he decided to build a more efficient one. Instead of storing hay on one side and dragging it out for the cattle, the hay was put in the middle, allowing the cattle to come to it.

Then he figured out sheep and hay could share the same space, if one was out when the other was in. Thus, just enough hay is stored in the center of the barn so that it runs out when it's lambing time.

The third example came about after it was found grass silage is cheaper to feed cattle than grain and causes less trouble in calving. Grain silage causes cows to get fleshy and inactive, Heckathorn said.

THROUGH THE USE of fertilizer on meadows and pastures, also a fairly new idea, enough grass silage can be produced to last the season. Another advantage of grass is that it lasts for five to six years before replanting, while corn had to be put in every spring.

Chairman of the Marion County Green Acres organization, Heckathorn has been interested in good grass methods since a drought in 1940 brought the grass silage plan in. Actually, the operation of Heckathorn's farm isn't all his idea, for his dad and brothers also help.

H. D. Heckathorn, the father, controls all five farms, four of which are in Wyandot County. He and the boys, Dwight, John, Warren, and Dick, share each one 50-50 and own all big farm machinery together.

THE ELDER Heckathorn started with one farm and as the boys grew older, bought new ones. The farm Dwight owns was purchased in 1915.

H. D. Heckathorn's farm has been in the family for about a 150 years.

"As I recall, we've owned it since the government gave it to us," Dwight said. "I think we got it while Thomas Jefferson was President but I'm not sure of that."

John is the only Heckathorn not specializing in Angus beef cattle. He started with beef but switched to dairy cows and now has Holsteins. Hogs and sheep are of secondary importance to the Heckathorns and, like cattle, are handled efficiently and with a minimum of effort.

At present, the combined Heckathorn acres total around 700. Their 200 head of beef cattle is one of the biggest herds in this area.

Bug Disrupts Corn Market

Ohio Farmers Forced To Pay Loans Earlier

COLUMBUS —A bug is forcing southern Ohio farmers to pay off government corn loans or deliver the corn to the Commodity Credit Corporation two to three months earlier than usual. The loans usually mature July 31.

Lowell Folsom, extension marketing specialist, says losses caused by anguomois grain moths in past years resulted in the CCC decision to call loans in earlier. Loan maturity dates were advanced to get corn from moth areas into government storage bins where it can be treated before moths lay eggs. That will prevent the losses.

T. H. Parks, extension entomologist, says anguomois grain moths lay eggs on stored corn during May and June. To prevent moth damage, he says corn must be treated before eggs are laid. Once the eggs are laid, they hatch and the moth larvae eat away the inside of corn kernels.

In additon to loss of weight, corn infested with moth is contaminated for human food and can be used only for livestock feed.

Loans will mature either June 1 or May 1 for Ohio counties touching U. S. Route 40 and south. The May 1 date is for extreme southern Ohio counties. Farmers should contact their local crop loan office for the loan maturity date for their county.

Northern Ohio farmers, except those in Coshocton County, may reseal their corn for another year if they don't want to close the loan this year. Miami County farmers may reseal their corn, too.

Roy K. Marshall Pleads 'No Defense' to Charge

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dr. Roy K. Marshall, who formerly simplified physics and astronomy for television audiences, has pleaded no defense to charges of sending obscene letters through the mails to five teen-age girls.

He entered his plea yesterday before Federal Dist. Judge Thomas J. Clary. He showed his only emotion—a frown—when charges from the indictment were read to a crowded courtroom.

Parents of the five girls said the letters were written by Marshall in answer to the girls' queries for help in high school science class problems.

Chances of an agricultural worker being killed on the job are over three times as great as for a worker in manufacturing.

DIVORCE ACTIONS GRANTED

UPPER SANDUSKY — Two divorces were granted by Judge Russell H. Kear in Common Pleas Court. Roger W. Frantz was awarded a divorce from Yvette L. Frantz on charges of gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty; Clara Mae Hitt was granted a divorce from Walter Hitt on charges of gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty. The defendant was ordered to pay $30.30 weekly for the support of the children. The suit for divorce filed by Margaret I. Gottfried against LeRoy F. Gottfried has been dismissed.

Marionites Attend

Farm, Home Week Opens With Crops, Diet Talks

Discussions on diets, crop rotation and farmers in Pakistan were heard yesterday as Farm and Home Week oened at Ohio State University in Columbus.

About 175 Marion County farmers are expected to visit Ohio State during the four-day affair.

MORE FORAGE IN crop rotations increased net income $500 on farms with cows producing 10,000 pounds of milk per cow, two agricultural economists said.

R. H. Blosser, Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, and J. H. Sitterley, Ohio State University, discussed the question, "Can farmers afford to raise more forage and feed it to poor livestock?" They calculated net income for different rotations and levels of milk production on farms with 100 acres of cropland.

They first discussed a three-year rotation of corn, wheat and alfalfa where corn was fed to hogs and forage was fed to cows producing 5500 pounds of milk. Net income for this system of farming was $4,196 a year from seven cows, 150 market hogs and 992 bushels of wheat. Milk sales per cow was about the state average.

NET INCOME was only $3,770 when forage from a four-year rotation of corn, wheat and two years of alfalfa was fed to cows averaging 5,500 pounds of milk. That income was from 14 cows, 105 hogs and 793 bushels of wheat. The economists said the net income was $426 lower under this system because average producing cows were not as profitable as hogs.

The sperialists said net income was $5,192 for the three-year rotation and $5,690 for the four-year rotation when forage was fed to cows producing 10,000 pounds of milk. That's an increase of $498 for the four-year rotation after paying for additional labor needed to care for 14 cows instead of seven.

THE OUTSTANDING trend in diet therapy is recognition of need for food in sickness as well a health, Mrs. Martha Lewis, director of the dietetics department at OSU Hospital, said. An abundance of all essential elements of good nutrition is needed for each person, sick or well, she said.

Many people have felt that being on a diet and semi-starvation were one and the same thing, she said. The mere mention of the word diet sent them into tremors.

Until the last few years every hospital had a special diet kitchen. There were diabetic diets, nephritic diets, sippy diets and many others, she said. Today, dieticians look at the person and not at the disease alone. There is a diet for Mrs. Jones, a diet for Mrs. Smith, and so on.

AT THE NEW Ohio State University Medical Health Center, there are cooks trained to prepare foods good for sick folks. They prepare it so that sick folks feel they are getting good food.

She said instead of diabetic diets or reducing diets, diet orders at the health center, read: carbohydrate 200, protein 100, fat 75; or 1,000 calorie diet; or regular diet reduce fat and others to fit the individual person's needs.

Pakistan farmers live in villages rather than on their individual land holdings, Mrs. Guy Miller told a Farm and Home Week audience. About 85 per cent of the Pakistan people are farmers, she said.

Mrs. Miller spent two years in Pakistan with her husband while he served as agricultural consultant there.

—:—

PAKISTAN FAMILY life is characterized by strict obedience on the part of children and by the conscientious care given aged parents and relatives, she said. The family unit is very strong.

She described the diet as "quite monotonous,"—usually a one-dish meal. In East Pakistan, foods are mainly cereals, rice and fish. In west Pakistan, wheat and small grains are the chief foods.

Meat, when available for food, is mainly mutton or veal, she said. Pork is never eaten because Muslim religion teaches that it is "unclean." They change butter into an oil-like product called "ghee" by removing the water from it. "Ghee" will keep without refrigeration, while butter will not.

Most families have a water buffalo or cow to furnish milk. Tea is their main beverage, she said.

11 County Advisers To Get 4-H Honors

Eleven Marion County 4-H Club advisors will be honored March 26 at the state wide Advisor's Recognition Luncheon in the grand ballroom of Ohio State University's Union.

Certificates will be presented to 4-H advisors throughout the state at a program following the luncheon. Advisors will be honored for 5, 10, 15, 20, and 25 years service with the 4-H Club.

Kenneth Coon of Meeker will be honored for 15 years service. Three county advisors, Carl Seiter, Big Island; Ernest Gast, Prospect; and Mrs. Lowell Douce, Caledonia, will receive certificates for 10 years service. Five-year certificates will go to: Mrs. Arthur Knickel and Miss Beatrice Knickel, Morral; Mrs. Oscar Kaelber, Waldo; Mrs. Winona Fogle, Meeker; Tom Knickel, Prospect; Mrs. Harry Brewer, Grand Prairie, and Mrs. Frances Davis, Green Camp.

Unofficial Alert

BALTIMORE (AP)—A part of East Baltimore had an unofficial—and brief—air raid alert last night.

Civil defense officials explained that electricians were working in a sewage pumping station where an air raid siren is located.

The workers moved a wrong wire and set off the siren.

Group Favors Operations of Lab for Wheat

WOOSTER, O. — A nine-man advisory committee expressed satisfaction with the operation of the cooperative soft wheat laboratory when they met at Wooster recently.

Formed to advise the laboratory on matters of soft wheat quality, the committee is composed entirely of industry representatives from the nation's leading milling and baking companies.

The laboratory, located at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, is one of four similar laboratories set up by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to guard the quality of the country's wheat crop. The prime function of the Wooster unit is to evaluate new varieties of wheat from experiment station breeding programs. Evaluations are based on milling and baking qualities of the wheat.

Dr B. B. Bayles, USDA coordinator in charge of the four regional laboratories spoke briefly at the meeting. He said the problem of maintining wheat quality in this area is more difficult because of the variety of uses for soft winter wheat.

"We want to help the farmer get the best return for his crop investment," Dr. Bayles said, "and at the same time help the milling and baking companies get what they want."

Speaking for the Experiment Station administrative staff was Dr. R. E. Yoder who cited the high degree of cooperation between the federal staff and the Ohio research program.

Dr. C. A. Lamb, associate chairman of the Station's agronomy department, outlined the history of quality control on wheat in Ohio and stated some of the problems now facing agriculture and the baking industry. One of these is the rising protein content of wheat caused by increased use of fertilizer and legumes. Farmers naturally like to harvest higher yields, Lamb said, but some types of flour products need a lower protein material.

Three members of the federal laboratory staff presented technical papers to the committee. They were Dr. William T. Yamazaki, associate chemist, and D. C. Abbott and H. K. Heizer, assistant technologists.

Following the morning session, C. E. Bode took the group on a tour of the laboratory and explained its facilities.

Permanent members of the committee are: J. E. Anderson, Igleheart Bros.; J. S. Andrews, General Mills; R. K. Durham, Pillsbury Mills; Wilbur Hanson, F. W. Stock and Sons; Howard Holmes, Chelsea Milling Co.; R. K. Hower, National Biscuit Co.; Paul M. Marshall, National Soft Wheat Millers Association; Jan Micka, United Biscuit Co.; and H. J. Simmons, Midwest Laboratories, Columbus.

Charles E. Bode, Wooster, USDA cereal technologist in charge of the laboratory's operations, will act as secretary of the newly formed group. J. E. Anderson, Evansville, Indiana, was elected chairman. Anderson is technical adviser to Igleheart Brothers, a division of General Foods.

Driver Thanks Deputy After Speeding Arrest

WATERVILLE, N.Y. (AP)—At his arraignment on a charge of speeding, Richard C. Wolff of New York City turned to Deputy Sheriff Arthur Pugne and said:

"I want to thank you. You may have saved my life and perhaps the lives of others. I had been to a sports show in Syracuse and was driving back home to attend another. I guess I just was not thinking. But thanks for arresting me. I guess I'm lucky you did."

Peace Justice Basil Crandall fined Wolff $10.

Harvest Aids Developed for Ohio Farmers

Experiment Station Method To Overcome Weather Handicaps

WOOSTER — Two Ohio agricultural engineers have developed a method to help Buckeye farmers overcome weather handicaps during wheat harvest time.

Their system will enable a farmer to combine his wheat at a kernel moisture condition as high as 28 per cent. This may mean fewer time delays and lower field losses from shattering or lodging.

Sound Wheat Results

Cooperating with the Ohio Rural Electrification Council, W. H. Johnson and H. T. Hurst of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station used rapid drying techniques to offset the high moisture condition of the early combined grain. Their tests showed sound wheat resulted in all cases except when the grain was stored above 16 per cent moisture in bags.

Another observation indicated that early combining works well as long as straw and grain do not have rain water or dew on the surfaces. At a 28 per cent moisture stage, straw does not break as badly, chaff tends to remain on the straw, and cutterbar losses are reduced.

Adjustment Important

Under these conditions, however, the cylinder concave adjustment is extremely important to avoid excessive losses of unthreshed grain. Tests show that these losses may range from almost nothing to 20 per cent depending upon adjustment of the cylinder concave.

Johnson and Hurst learned that test weights varied from 59 pounds per bushel early in the season to 55 pounds two weeks after normal combine season. Rapid drying contributed to the high test weight.

The engineers plan further to study certain types of grain conditioning; and in cooperation with the federal soft wheat laboratory at Wooster they will conduct milling and baking tests of wheat harvested by the new method.

To compare cost of orange concentrate, fresh oranges and canned orange juice, figure the cost per serving.

Malenkov Adopting Changes?

Soviet Report Criticizes Theory Favored by Stalin

LONDON (AP)—Official criticism of Prof. Triofim D. Lysenko in a report circulating throughout the Soviet Union today raises the question whether the Malenkov government is about to plow under one of Stalin's pet theories.

This theory, propounded by Lysenko, emphasizes the importance of environment in plant life and just about everything else. Lysenko declared acquired characteristics could be passed on to the next generation.

Stalin liked this because it supported his idea that an environment of proper indoctrination could mold all people into loyal Communists.

For several years before the Red dictator's death, no one in Russia dared criticize Lysenko, a blond, bespectacled botanist whose theories have been frowned on by most Western scientists.

Now, the first word against him has been uttered in Russia, and by no less all authority than Nikita S. Khrushchev, secretary general of the Central Committee of the Communist party and the country's agricultural boss.

Khrushchev struck at Lysenko obliquely, an old party maneuver, by lambasting one of the professor's proteges, fellow scientist Dmitriev, fomer head of the Department of Agricultural Planning of the State Planning Board.

"In some institutes," Khrushchev told the Central Committee of the party Feb. 3, in a report broadcast only Sunday by the Moscow radio, "there are men who have stuck like limpets to science, but who have failed in practical work. Let us take for instance Dmitriev, who has done no little harm to the cause of developing agriculture."

Khrushchev said that after Dmitriev was fired from the State Planning Board he was given a chance to work in the South, on a state farm or at a machine tractor station.

"However," said Khrushchev, "he wriggled out of it, started studying for a doctor's degree in the Academy of Sciences, enjoying the protection of Academician T.D. Lysenko, and he tried to obtain the degree of doctor of biological science."

While enjoying Lysenko's protection, Dmitriev has been lecturing as an authority on agriculture.

"We," said Khrushchev, "are as yet only discussing the question of developing virgin and waste land, but comrade Dmitriev hurries to deliver public lectures on the question. It is easy to understand that our science will derive no help from such a man of learning."

Then Khrushchev said something that could be hitting right at Lysenko.

"But is this an isolated instance?" he asked. "Unfortunately, there are men calling themselves scientific workers who have no relation with science."

Khrushchev singled out other Soviet agriculturists—and some of them are friends of Lysenko's—for mistakes in several branches of agriculture.

Juniors at Mt. Victory Plan Class Production

MOUNT VICTORY—Final preparations are being made for the production of the comedy farce, "Fraidy Cat," by the junior class at Mount Victory High School on Friday at 8:15 p.m.

Leading roles will be taken by Bill Martin and Mary Coulson, supported by Peggy Ellis, Delores Sieg, Norma Born, Peggy Overshiner, Howard Heilman, Joy Cav-Jean McCullough, Perry Tensman, Jean McCullough, Perry Temple, Wally Harder, Delores Parthmore and Alice Endsley.

The scene of the play is a summer resort where a young mystery novelist, Bill Martin spends a few not-too-peaceful days. He is ducer by a few aspiring actresses, who nearly frighten him to death playing their respective versions of a dangerous woman, especially for him.

Labor Surplus Classification Denied Canton

Federal Assistance Refused on Grounds Situation Temporary

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government has refused to classify Canton, Ohio, a critical unemployment sector on the ground many workers there are only temporarily out of jobs.

This was disclosed today in a letter written by Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell to Rep. Bow (R-Ohio). Mitchell added that if a new survey shows more unemployed there, the surplus labor classification then would be given Canton.

Bow told a reporter he was not satisfied with Mitchell's explanation.

"Im going to see Mitchell tomorrow morning, and urge him to classify Canton as a surplus labor area now," said Bow.

This "Group 4" designation is given any area where six per cent or more of the employable workers are unemployed. In Ohio, both Toledo and Steubenville-Wheeling (W. Va.) have been so classified.

The government grants plants in such areas concessions on defense contract bidding.

In the past, the Office of Defense Mobilization has stated this classification sometimes takes several months to make a noticeable difference in employment.

In his letter to Bow, Mitchell said Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation figures showed Canton had "barely six per cent" unemployed.

"Many of the unemployed workers are seasonally displaced construction workers," he said, "or were formerly attached to nonmanufacturing industries where employment normally drops during the winter months."

Discounting of this seasonal unemployment, Mitchell said, puts Canton below the six per cent joblessness required for the "Group 4" classification.

The Ohio bureau, he added, is making another survey in Canton now.

Bow also released the contents of a letter written him by Ernest Cornell, administrator of the Ohio bureau.

Cornell said of 141,700 workers in Canton eligible for unemployment compensation, 9,000 have filed claims, bringing the percentage of unemployed there to 6.3 per cent.

A new survey is due to be sent to Washington by April 10, he said.

"The federal government," Cornell wrote, "will then place Canton in classification 4 unless the last two weeks in March show a substantial rise in employment."

Boy, 10, Two Pals, Admit 9 Burglaries

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A 10-year-old boy, wearing two toy guns and a sheriff's badge, was joined by police in his game of cops and robbers yesterday. But found they were playing for keeps.

Officers C. W. Pierce and C. B. Mead said the lad confessed being the ringleader on nine burglaries reported over the weekend. Two playmates were implicated, one 10, the other 8. They, too, confessed, police said.

The burglaries netted $28 in cash, a quantity of candy and cookies, and several toys, including the two guns and sheriff's badge.

Ohio Reaches Agreement on Taxing Trucks

Tennessee Proposal Accepted by State Reciprocity Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Agreement has been reached on truck licensing between Ohio and Tennessee—one of the states which had threatened retaliation against Ohio's new axle-mile tax.

Joe Gill, first assistant Ohio attorney general, announced yesterday Ohio has accepted in substance an agreement which lets Ohio truckers operate in Tennessee without buying Tennessee license plates. Officials of the two states will meet tomorrow in Nashville to work out final details.

Gill said the Ohio reciprocity board will redraft the agreement to bring it as close as possible "in accordance with Ohio laws." The meaning of the agreement will be unchanged, he said.

Tennessee threatened several months ago to make Ohio truckers buy Tennessee license plates if Ohio failed to exempt Tennessee trucks from its axle-mile tax on heavy trucks. Some other states have retaliated or have indicated they will retaliate against Ohio in the same way.

Gill says the signed agreement will be in Tennessee by that time.

The agreement exempts Ohio trucks of more than three axles from buying Tennessee plates. But truckers will have to pay a tax equivalent to 1.4 cents per mile, charged in the form of a 7-cent-per gallon gasoline tax, in Tennessee.

The Ohio axle-mile tax ranges from ½ to 2½ cents per mile depending on the number of axles per truck.

Motor traffic entering Germany rose 74 per cent in the first six months of 1953. A total of 1.85 million vehicles crossed the borders of which 1.5 million were automobiles, 600,000 more than the same period in 1952.

Ohioan Linked To Air Force Currency Theft

TOKYO (AP)—An Air Force Major entrusted with destroying worn-out military currency and a former officer have been arrested for allegedly pocketing some $200,000 destined for the furnace, the Air Force announced tonight.

Maj. Thomas Pate of Los Angeles, under house arrest here, has helped recover most of the money, Far East Air Forces said. No charges have been filed against him.

The FBI in Washington identified the second man as Lowell A. Logan, 24, of Springfield, Ohio. Now a student at the University of Iowa, Logan was arrested Saturday at Iowa City. He pleaded innocent yesterday to a charge of embezzling $20,000 in federal funds.

Pate has been finance officer at Tachikawa air base 20 miles southwest of Tokyo.

The air force said he admitted swapping script of small denomination for bigger currency and then falsifying records to show that the bigger certificates had been destroyed.

The role allegedly played by Logan was not announced.

When arrested, the major was carrying $66,000 in U. S. currency. Military personnel in Japan are required to use only military script while on duty in Japan.

Harding's Track Squad Drilling for Season Opener

Victory String of 35 Meets Boasted by Prexy Runners

Harding High School's spring sports schedule is officially under way with track practice in full swing at the Harding Stadium with daily sessions.

Seventy-two thinclads are presently working out in preparation for the first Dennison University Indoor Relays April 3 and a dual meet with Worthington here April 6.

The local runners will be defending a streak of 35 straight dual meet wins against seven tough opponents this season.

Prospects Bright

Track coach Kenny Somerlot says prospects are bright for another good season but adds that the Prexies have lined up the toughest schedule in the school's history.

Time trials will be held as soon as the track can be rolled to determine the runners who will make the trip to Granville for the Dennison relays on April 3. New track men are choosing their events while the veterans are building endurance with over-distance work at the present time.

Harding's runners will also be defending a handful of other marks his year. The Prexies will be seeking their fourth straight Marion Night Relays title, fourth straight Buckeye League title and fifth consecutive Fremont Relays title.

Coach Somerlot today listed the most promising track men thus far.

Lettermen Max Kaelber, who has cleared 10-6 this spring, heads the list in the pole vault event. Four sophomores, Dan Fosnaugh, Ed Shelton, Bill Black and Tim Thomas, are hitting around 9 feet but will need to improve to give Harding depth in the event.

Only letterman in the high jump is Senior Marv McFann who has cleared 5-6. Another senior, Jim Zeigler, who had hit 5-7, had been counted on but a summer work injury is expected to keep him out of action. Other jumpers are Leo McGuire and Dale Brewer, juniors, and sophomores' Tom Hazen, Ted Bibler, Dave Lockwood and Mike Shields.

Ballinger Leads

Heading the broad jumpers is Gary Ballinger, the lone letterman in the event. He has hit 21 feet. The unfilled pits have kept the broad jumpers from jumping but candidates are L. C. Robinson and Dick Bales, juniors, and Tom Hazen, Shields and Lowell McFann, sophomores.

Bob Hamor, senior, and Bob Prater, junior, both lettermen, lead the shot put men. Prater has already reached 45 feet with his tosses while Hamor is just starting to work out following the close of basketball. Other good prospects who have hit 40 feet thus far are Carl Ecchols and Charles Stoffer, seniors, Frank D'Eramo, a junior, and sophomores' Gary Huber and Dan Fosnaugh.

Prater, who participated in the discuss event last year, has tosses of 130 feet already this spring in the event. Two sophomores pushing him are Dan Fosnaugh, who has a throw of over 140 feet to his credit, and Gary Huber, who has hit 130 feet so far. Other prospects are Carl Ecchols and Don Caprino, a sophomor who broke an ankle in intramural basketball but is expected to throw away his crutches shortly.

Chet King and Gary Ballinger, a pair of lettermen, led the dash men. Both are juniors. Senior Joel Williams has been performing well while Gene Armstrong and L. C. Robinson are the best juniors to date and Dave Townsend, Lowell McFann and Ted Bibler the best sophomores.

Three experienced men, Jim Saiter, Marv McFann and Gene Armstrong, head the high hurdlers and will be bolstered by a promising sophomore, Ted Firstenberger. Armstrong, Joel Williams and Gary Ballinger will be the low hurdlers.

The Prexies are well fortified in the 440 event with two lettermen, Larry Clinger, a senior, and Jack Andrews, a junior. The pair along with Jim Saiter made up three-fourths of Harding's great 1953 mile relay team. Sophomore Ted Firstenberger is expected to make the relay team another great one. Sophomore John Arthur is also a candidate for the team.

Distance Runners

Lettermen in the 880 yard run are Dick Bollinger, a senior, and Fred Hazen, a junior. Supporting them to fill out a good two-mile relay team are three sophomores, Louis Butler, Jerry Thomas and Ben Dozier. Junior Alvin Thomas has also recorded good time.

Fred Price and Gene Monroe, two senior lettermen who are co-captains of the 1954 squad, are the Harding mile runners. Two other seniors, Bud Metz and Allen Green, are working out to give Harding a good four-mile relay team for the Mansfield Relays. Other good prospects are Tom Rutherford and Junior Delbert Huntsman.

Lou Ralston, a weight event man, is assisting Somerlot with track coaching.

Tribe's Lemon Develops New Let-Up Delivery

MESA, Ariz. (AP)—Bob Lemon, unhappy about the 15 losses that went with his 21 victories last season, plans a slow-up pitch as a remedy.

Last year, the Cleveland Indians ace occasionally tossed a change-up curve that was less fast than his regular bender. His new pitch, he says, will be an even slower ball.

"I just take something off of it to throw the batter off his timing," he said.

Lemon, now 33, said he expects to have a better season because, "I feel as though I'm in my prime . . . I don't recall a spring when I've felt better."

So far in exhibition season, Lemon has worked six innings without giving up an earned run.

The Indians are scheduled to play the Chicago Cubs here today, after being rained out yesterday from a game with the Baltimore Orioles in Tucson. Yesterday's was the fourth Cleveland exhibition in a week to be rained out.

Johnson Claims Moore's Crown

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Harold Johnson was prepared today to put $2,500 on the line to back his claim to the light heavyweight title.

Johnson laid claim to the crown yesterday and said he was ready to post that amount with the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission to guarantee a summer defense against any capable challenger.

Johnson's manager, Tommy Loughrey, said Johnson's move was decided on because the recognized lightheavyweight titleholder — Archie Moore—"consistently has refused to meet Johnson in a title bout."

Loughrey said what brought things to a climax was the report that Moore was negotiating with Jack Solomons, London promoter, for a title defense in the British capital against Yolande Pompey of Trinidad.

Johnson has been rated for some time the No. 1 challenger and has won his last 12 fights, including victories over Ezzard Charles and Nino Valdes.

Moore was directed by the National Boxing Assn. last winter to fight Johnson, but signed for another bout with Joey Maxim, from whom Moore won the title. Moore won the second Maxim bout.

Slugfest Expected In TV Ring Feature

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Television fans who like their boxing bloody and brutal should get full satisfaction from tonight's 10-round fight between Charley Norkus and Danny Nardico, a pair of tough sluggers with the dispositions of angry bulls.

They staged an eight-knockdown brawl here Jan. 20. Norkus, an unranked 24-year-old heavyweight from Jersey City, came off the floor twice to win by a technical knockout in the ninth. Nardico was flattened six times.

Tonight's fight at the Miami Beach Auditorium will be televised nationally (CBS) starting at 10 p.m., ST.

SHORT

Jim Hendy, head man of the Cleveland Barons, has kept himself busy during the last two weeks preparing his hockey club for the opening of the Calder Cup playoffs tonight at Buffalo, but this week basketball has crept into the scene.

"I didn't know there were so many basketball fans," Jim said in a telephone conversation yesterday. "This place has been a rat race all week."

Fans have been bombarding the Arena office all week demanding tickets for the state tourney battles this weekend and Hendy and his staff have taken quite a going over. Control of the tickets has been directly in the hands of the Ohio High School Athletic Association and its chairman, H. W. Emswiler.

EACH OF THE four schools in each of the two divisions were issued their ticket allotment before the remaining ducats were shifted to Cleveland. Since then most of the schools also have contacted the Arena.

Kent Roosevelt was the first. Its allotment of 1,500 ducats was gobbled up and school officials asked for 2,000 more. But the one that stumped Jim and the rest of the staff was a small town of 205 population which asked for 3,000 tickets.

THE BARON general manager also apologized for taking Murray Wilkie from the Marion hockey team at the late stage of the race. Jim reported he had to do something in an attempt to break the parent club's losing streak. At the time Wilkie was called up, the Barons had dropped 14 of their last 17.

Hendy indicated that Cleveland hockey fans may have forced the move. They wanted Marion's Gordie Vejprava or Wimpy or Hal Jones. He said that was the main reason Vejprava was hustled back to Marion before the bigger city fans got a good look at him in action.

Mt. Gilead Quintet Reaches Semi-Final Round in Y Event

Farm Bureau of Mount Gilead moved into the semi-finals of the YMCA Invitational Basketball tournament last night by defeating Raymond 67-43. Four teams now remain in the tournament and are scheduled to meet tonight to determine the finalists.

Green Camp Elevator will face Sturgis Market at 7:30 in the first semi-final contest and the Marion AC tangles with Farm Bureau, last night's winner at 8:30. The finals will be Thursday night.

The Mount Gilead team used 12 men in last night's game and all of them contributed to the total of 67 points against Raymond. Dale Underwood was top man in the scoring department with 14 points while Bill Coder of Marysville had 12 for the losing five. The winners broke the game open early, jumping to a 21-9 quarter lead and a 36-15 half-time bulge. The winners coasted in the final two periods.

Redleg Player Denies Charge By Cincy Fans

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Johnny Temple of the Cincinnati Redlegs defended himself today from accusations of some critics that he was a "trouble-making malcontent."

"I know I've been called an 'agitator,'" the 24-year-old infielder said. "Well, all that's wrong with me is I want to play ball—every day if possible."

He said he was the "forgotten man" after the first of the month of the 1953 season. Temple asserted he did not want to criticize Rocky Bridges, the regular second baseman.

"I think he's quite a ball player, especially with the glove," Johnny said. "But it did burn me to think that I was playing second fiddle to a .227 hitter."

Temple did not get into the lineup at Sarasota yesterday when the Reds dropped a 2-0 decision to the Boston Red Sox. It was the seventh defeat for the Reds in 16 grapefruit games and their first whitewash.

Grady Hatton played second and got two hits, including a triple, of the Red quota of five rationed by winner Willard Nixon and Tom Brewer.

The American Leaguers got eight hits—including four doubles—off rookies Walter (Red) Stewart, the loser, and Maurice Fisher.

Today's game at Plant Field pits the Reds against the Chicago White Sox.

Cub Manager May Alternate Outfield Pair

MESA, Ariz. (AP)—Manager Phil Cavarretta of the Chicago Cubs thinks he has solved the problem of what to do with Frank Baumholtz, who has been trying to crowd into the Cub outfield.

Baumholtz is a steady .300 hitter but as a centerfielder playing between the lumbering sluggers Hank Sauer and Ralph Kiner, has had his defensive troubles. Says Cavarretta:

"I think we will alternate Baumholtz with Hank Sauer in right field—Baumholtz taking over on the road and Hank playing at home.

"Sauer always goes into a pitiful slump as soon as we hit the road but as soon as he gets back to Wrigley Field he hits a ton. Baumholtz hits everywhere, so why not get the most out of both of them?"

The arrangement would leave rookie Bob Talbot as the centerfield regular.

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Outfielder Dick Wakefield has lost out again in a bid for a major league job, this time with the Washington Senators.

The Senators have told the one-time Detroit bonus baby his services are no longer required. He had been working out at the Washington training camp at his own expense.

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—Boston Red Sox slugger Ted Williams today was assured of plenty of hitting practice as soon as his cracked collarbone is healed enough to permit him to use a bat.

Manager Lou Boudreau said that coaches George Susce and Paul Schreiber will be left behind to help condition Williams when the club breaks camp April 1 for the trip north.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The New York Giants have agreed to hold their baseball spring training camp here for the next five years. Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, signed the agreement yesterday with Frank Murphy, mayor of Phoenix.

Phils' Aces Beaten 3-2 By Senators

By RIP WATSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

As many a poker player has learned to his sorrow, the Philadelphia Phillies discovered yesterday that a pair of aces is good, but not always good enough.

In a day of sterling pitching performances throughout the Grapefruit League, the Phils sent Robin Roberts and Curt Simmons against Washington, but the Senators beat the Phillies' aces 3-2. That leaves Manager Steve O'Neill's club with a 5-12 spring record, and it looks as if they'll be in trouble this summer if they can't win with both Roberts and Simmons going for them.

The Senators, who had the fewest total bases of any American League club last year, put on a typical performance by slashing five straight singles against Roberts to tie the game at 2-2 in the fourth inning. Then they drove out three more singles for the winning run in the fifth. Simmons restricted Washington to a scratch single over the last three innings, but Bob Ross of the Senators matched his shutout pitching after relieving Bob Porterfield in the seventh.

Carl Erskine of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who did not pitch in a game until March 13, became the first major league hurler to go the full nine innings as he turned back the Athletics 10-2.

Catcher Roy Campanella led the Dodgers' 14-hit assault on two Philadelphia pitchers with a home run and two singles.

Rookie Tom Brewer, who isn't even on the Boston Red Sox roster but looks like a good prospect to stick, ran his string of scoreless innings to 7 with three good frames in the Sox' 2-0 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs. Willard Nixon pitched the first six innings for the winners and also drove in the first run with a double.

Larry Jansen and Johnny Antonelli of the New York Giants also teamed up for a shutout, blanking the Chicago Cubs 5-0 in a game cut to 5½ innings because of rain. Each pitcher gave up one hit in three innings.

Vic Raschi, the St. Louis Cardinals $75,000 purchase from the New York Yankees, made the deal look better and better as he turned in six scoreless innings in the Cards' 6-5 victory over Milwaukee. Raschi, who gave up three hits in four scoreless innings his first time out as a Cardinal March 10, scattered five Milwaukee singles this time.

The White Sox collected only eight hits to Detroit's 13, but outscored the Tigers 9-7 in the day's only free-hitting contest.

SEE THE FIGHTS TONIGHT AT THE RITZ BAR AND GRILL . . . FREE

Tonight promises to be an all out and out brawl with an important heavyweight rematch between Charley Norkus of Bayonne, N. J., and Danny Nardico of Tampa, Florida. Norkus, a dock worker, scored a K.O. over the Floridian in their last meeting. The record books show eight knockdowns were scored by the two heavies in that battle. The Bayonne belter has won 22 bouts in 33 pro appearances, 15 via the K.O. route. Ex-Marine Nardico in 63 appearances has won 48, 34 by K.O.'s. He's credited with the only knockdown ever scored against former middleweight champ Jake LaMotta and is one of the few to put ex-light-heavy champion Joey Maxim on the deck. This will be a terrific battle and is a hard one to predict — but we'll put our neck out and pick Norkus to win this one too.

Waterloo Wonders Become A Legend After 20 Seasons

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Just 20 years ago today, from deep in the Lawrence County hills, emerged the most talked-of, colorful and improbable basketball team in Ohio history.

They were the Waterloo Wonders!

Two decades of reminiscence have turned the five kids from the village of 150 into legendary figures, and added a few trills to their exploits. But all the frills and fancies can't match the facts.

One thing is certain. If all the folk who say they saw the Wonders win the Class B high school championships in 1934 and 1935 aren't kidding, then the state fairgrounds coliseum must hold 100,000 fans.

The Wonders, with curly-haired Magellan E. Hairston as teacher, school principal and coach, took Columbus by storm.

The team, clad in overalls, strolled down High street with its uniforms under its arms. The uniforms were wrapped around the shoes, and the uncovered "bundle" was held together by a piece of baling twine.

Sweat suits? The Wonders never heard of such things.

Elevators at the Chittenden Hotel—first the boys had ever been in—entranced the Wonders. They enjoyed the elevator ride so much they were late for their opening game, Chandlersville was the foe.

Before either side scored a point, Beryl Drummond, Waterloo forward, was fouled. He stepped to the free throw line, and instead of trying for the point in that day's orthodox underhand way, he bounced the ball off the floor and through the hoop.

That was the first point, and the Wonders were on their way. In all the state tourney Class A and Class B games from 1923 through 1933, only seven teams had been able to score 40 or more points, and none had reached 50.

But Waterloo went for 58 that day, winning 58-29, with the craziest offense the classic had ever seen. All 10 members of the Wonder squad got in the act, but only 6 scored. The starters—Drummond and Wyman Roberts at forward, Orlyn Roberts at center, and Curt Wiseman and Curt McMahon at guards—put on a circus. They displayed a five-man lockstep dribbling act, bounced the ball off the chest of defenders, handed the ball to the opposition with a courtly bow after refusing to take "bunny" shots, and walked over to the bench for a rest while their four mates played on.

Lowellville was a 43-32 second round victim, and Mark Center was beaten 40-26 in the 1934 finals. The Wonders won 29 without a loss that year, and never played a game on their home court—only because they didn't have one.

The next season it was the same story. The same five kids were back, and they breezed through the three tourney games by 39-22, 48-21, and 25-22, Oxford Stewart furnishing the title game opposition in which the Wonders were forced to forget their antics and concentrate on scoring.

Maybe the Wonders were tired for that last one. They had a 52-3 record that season, all the losses to Class A teams, and half their wins over the same class.

Coach Hairston is now farming at Arabia, near Pedro, which is near Waterloo. His daughter, June, is valedictorian of the graduating class at Hairston's old school.

Of the players, Wiseman went to Ohio U., and the others formed a barn-storming team. McMahon and Drummond are now working in Dayton, Wiseman is coaching, Orlyn Roberts is at home in Waterloo, and his cousin Wyman drops back at times.

In the 1935 tournament the starting five went all the way, except for a one-minute substitution in the second game. And all but Wiseman "made" the first all-tournament team.

You won't see anything like 'em Friday and Saturday in the state meet at Cleveland. Those Wonders had everything, in clusters.

Shuck Quits Assistant Coaching Post at Galion

GALION —The resignation of Jack B. Shuck as assistant football coach of Galion High School was announced here Tuesday.

Shuck has indicated that he wishes to retain his position as head basketball coach and track coach. He has held these positions for the last two years. Coach Richard Kerin is head football and baseball coach, and assists Shuck with basketball.

The request by Shuck will be presented to the school board for action at its next meeting, April 20.

Ashland's Ken Sidle Wins All-Ohio Basketball Honors

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Individual basketball brilliance paid off today as five "1000-to-1" shots won berths on the 1954 Associated Press All-Ohio Class A high school cage team.

Selected from among more than 5,000 eligibles through votes by the state's coaches and sports scribes, the "dream team" has everything.

Each of the first five soars six feet or more, has the speed and stamina demanded by the current race-horse style of play, and the coordination and deft touch which get the ball in the basket.

It's an all-senior quintet, with Dick Trimbur of Niles and Ken Sidle of Ashland at forward, Alex Ellis of Hamilton at center, and Norman Lee of Dayton Roosevelt and Owen Lawson of Middletown at the guards.

The selections were made on pre-tournament play, but announcement of the all-star team was delayed until state title week at the request of the Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Assn. which said premature honors might hamper the youngsters in sectional-district-regional play

Trimbur averaged 22 points in 19 games, Sidle 23.5 in 20, Ellis 21 in 20, Lee 17.6 in 16, and Lawson 20.3 in 17. But high scoring was incidental in all cases, for each was a "Take charge" guy responsible for the high ranking of his club. Sheer individual brilliance, not team records, was the basis of the selections, however.

There was keen competition for the positions, but there was no doubt in the final outcome. Sports editors of 60 newspapers, 30 radio stations, and some 300 coaches participated in the balloting, each picking an all-state quintet.

Despite the number of voters, who could have nominated 1,950 different players had they seen fit, only 140 standouts drew mention of any kind. Lawson, who played on two state championship teams for Middletown and led the Butler County powerhouse into first place inthe final Associated Press top 10 poll, outvoted all the others and was awarded the honorary captaincy.

Bill Mazeroski of Warren Consolidated at Tiltonsville, who scored 527 points as his team was losing 14 of 19 games, paced the second team and won the captaincy. Wayne Stevens (437 in 18) of Chillicothe joined Mazeroski at forward, with Wayne Embry (450 in 18) of Tecumseh at center, and Jimmy Thomas (356 in 19) of Gallipolis and Jim Kubacki (330 in 19) of Toledo Macomber at guards.

The third team captaincy goes to Joe Bandy of Canton McKinley, a sterling guard who helped make Herman (Bup) Rearick's return to active coaching a successful one. John Lepley of Bellevue won the other guard spot, with Leroy Carr of Portsmouth's Cinderella team and John Powell of Franklin at forward, and Jim Franklin of Columbus North at center.

Here are some terse remarks by coaches of the top quintet:

Joe Bassett, Niles McKinley: Dick Trimbur is the finest scholastic player I have ever seen or coached.

Cloyce Taylor, Ashland: Ken Sidle is best I've seen in years. Great hook shot with either hand, fine control on tip-ins, top-notch rebounder, fine team man.

Warren Scholler, Hamilton: Alex Ellis was our key boy. Can be depended on in any situation. He was the making of our team.

John Woollums, Dayton Roosevelt: Plays any position, and is one of best defensive men in Ohio. He has everything.

Paul Walker, Middletown: Owen Lawson probably is the greatest player Middletown ever had. A great guard and leader, president of senior class.

Ohio Pair Adopts 6 Children, Sees No Cause for Stir

MINSTER, Ohio (AP)—When Ben Martin and his wife brought six youngsters home to live with them in this western Ohio town of 1,500 persons, Martin didn't think it would cause much excitement.

Even now that word of the multiple adoption has been in newspapers throughout the country, the 37-year-old tool and dye maker can't understand why people are so interested.

"We didn't have any children of our own and couldn't have any," he explained, "so we adopted them."

He referred to Elizabeth, 5; Bernard, 4; Brenda Lou, 2; David, 6; Diana, 9, and John, 8, whom he and his wife adopted last Saturday in Mercer County. The children's mother is dead, he said, but noted the court wouldn't let him say any more about their background.

RESUMING GUARD STATUS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's famed 37th Infantry Division will revert to state control this June as part of the Ohio National Guard, Brig. Gen. Kenneth Cooper, commanding general of the 37th Division artillery of the ONG, said yesterday units of the 37th now at Camp Polk, La., will be reorganized with the designation and colors of one of the Army's regular divisions.

Prexy Cagers Hear Talk by Miami Mentor

Bill Rohr, Miami University basketball coach, spoke before approximately 60 persons last night at the annual Harding High School basketball banquet.

During a 45-minute talk, Rohr stressed what he considered the most important factors in a winner. He warned the Prexy cagers that long hours of hard work are required to be a consistent winner.

He advised future basketball players not to forget the cage game during the summer. "An hour and a half of practice daily isn't enough," he said and went on to recommend workouts all during the coming summer.

Varsity letters were awarded by Harding Coach Jim Lawler to Ron Conroy, Don Smith, Doug Bibler, Bob Hamor, Dave Schneiker, Max Kaelber and Phil Carroll. All but Carroll are seniors. Three managers, Dick Mull, Fred Price and Pete DeWolfe, also received letters. The cheerleaders were presented letters.

E. Paul Bachman, member of the city school board, served as toastmaster for the program. Cecil Gabler, principal at Harding, gave the invocation and L. G Jones, director of vocal music, led group singing.

Al Beach, reserve coach, spoke briefly to congratulate the departing seniors and report on the under classmen coming up next year.

Jets Shut Out Toledo To Cop Playoff Series

By The Associated Press

The Johnstown Jets and the Cincinnati Mohawks, who fought for the American Amateur Hockey Assn. championship last year, will begin their battle tomorrow night for the International Hockey League playoff cup.

Cincinnati finished on top in regular season play and Johnstown was third. Last year Johnstown was the crownbearer of the now defunct Eastern Hockey League and Cincinnati downed the Jets three straight for the amateur title.

(The IHL pays its players but considers itself "amateur" under the rules of the Amateur Hockey Assn. of the United States).

The Jets defeated Toledo, 3-0, last night to win a best-of-three series and take the final playoff berth. Ron Castalane, Don Hall and Clifford McArthur scored the goals within six minutes in the second period.

Cincinnati, holder of a 6-1-1 record over the Jets this season, will play the first two games on its home ice. The remainder of the best-of-seven series will be in Pennsylvania.

Bucyrus Organizes Little League Plans

BUCYRUS — A group of 25 interested persons met at St. Paul's Lutheran Church with the idea of forming a Little League baseball program in Bucyrus, Rev. M. P. Paetznick, pastor of the church, is the temporary chairman.

The group, which included business, working and professional men, decided that Bucyrus will request a franchise from the League's national headquarters at Williamsport, Pa.

The main speaker was M. L. Stearn, president of the Shelby Little League program, who outlined the structure of the Little Leagues. He also told how Shelby started the program last year.

An important meeting will be held next Monday at 7:30 p.m. at Bucyrus High School where permanent officers will be elected and various committees set up. Rev. Paetznick said yesterday that application cards will be handed out to all boys 8-12 years of age, and they are to fill the cards out and bring them along with their parents to next Monday's meeting.

STEVE CANYON By Milton Caniff

CANYON IS TIED UP TIGHT AND COZY...
NOW YOU WALK BACK IN THE AIRCRAFT, MME. MULDOON...
... AND DON'T DO ANYTHING FANCY! I ENJOY THAT PARALYZED LOOK ON YOUR FACE, BUT I COULD SHOOT YOU AND FOREGO THE FUN!
KNEEL DOWN AND PUT YOUR HANDS BEHIND YOUR BACK... HURRY— OR YOU MAY BE MISSING SOME OF THOSE NICE, WHITE TEETH...
YOU WON'T CRACK, WILL YOU? EVEN WHEN YOU'RE HELPLESS, YOU CAN STILL STARE ME DOWN! MAYBE THAT'S WHY I STARTED TAKING DOPE IN THE FIRST PLACE... I COULD MARRY A MUCH PRETTIER GIRL LIKE EDITH, BUT YOU JUST LOOKED DOWN YOUR NOSE AND MADE ME FEEL ALL HANDS AND FEET—LIKE AN OVERGROWN KID!... WELL, THE KID IS BIG TODAY, AND YOU CRAWL!

Carl Reduces Exercise Obtained From Golfing

SNYDER, N. Y. (UP) — Some sportsmen will shudder when they see it, but one of the latest gimmicks on the golf course is a small electric-powered cart that puts an end to walking.

Richard H. Guelich Jr., a local real estate man, developed the cart similar to those used by the handicapped.

To insure that courses will not be town up, tires are larger and starting speed is reduced. A golf bag rack is installed on the rear.

The vehicle, which weighs 600 pounds, gets around a course in an hour and a half, compared to the usual 3½ hours spent walking.

Two groups heartily endorse the golfmobile. Those who play early in the morning like to conserve their energy for the rest of the day.

Event Set June 27

Drum and Bugle Corps Contest To Be Held Here

American Legion drum and bugle corps from three states will convene in Marion early this summer to participate in a contest at the Harding High School stadium.

Howard Sines, president of the drum and bugle corps of Marion Bird-McGinnis Post 162, American Legion, said the local organization will be host to 12 other corps from Ohio, Indiana, and Michigan.

—:—

SCHEDULED FOR SUNDAY, June 27, the contest will be the first such event ever held in Marion. Its purpose is to increase the general efficiency of each group.

Corps taking part are all a part of the Midwest Drum and Bugle Corps Circuit.

Groups included in the circuit are located in Bellefontaine, Circleville, Cincinnati, Norwood, Forrestville, North College Hill, Toledo Dayton, and Marion, in Ohio and in Portland, Ind., and Detroit and Dearborn, Mich.

Judging of the best corps will be by a panel of 13 members of the All-American Judges Association. It will be on the basis of marching and maneuvering, general effect, inspection, and drumming and bugling. Each corps will present a repertoire of marching and music for 15 minutes.

A TOTAL of four such competitions are scheduled in the Midwest circuit during the summer months.

At the state Legion convention in Cleveland last year, the local group — called "The Cavaliers" — finished seventh in the state with a score of 72. It was their first participation in a corps competition.

The Marion corps plans to enter seven contests throughout the state this year. In anticipation of this, corp members have practiced some five hours a week during the winter to improve their proficiency.

"The Cavaliers" draw members from business and professional groups and Legionnaires. To be eligible for competition the corps must be composed of 80 per cent Legion members.

Eugene Pletcher serves as musical director and instructor.

OFFICERS OF the group are Roy Mash Jr., president; William P. Smith, secretary; H. E. Long, treasurer; Burton Riley, quartermaster; Charles Browning, drill master; Wayne Willis, business manager; John Hachten, drum sergeant; and Donald Jerew and William Wetterauer, bugle sergeants.

A six man color guard is composed of Harvey Bell, sergeant, and Joe Purcell, Howard Tweedle, Fred Septer, Newton Cunningham and Norman Ralston.

Other members are Dr. Gerald Strauss, Donald Williams, William Flannigan, Jack Smith, Eugene Elliott, Carl Werley, John Dean, Donald Schweinfurth, Donald Gehrman, Gene Mathias, Bud Mash, Frank Bollinger, H. E. Long, Paul Bell, and Alfred Ledenham.

Sines said there are still openings for one bass drummer and seven buglers.

Clements Lists Marion County Debt Decrease

The Marion County debt—most of it in the form of long-term bonds—stood at $8,645,987.72 on Jan. 1, 1954, Maurice C. Clements, county auditor, announced today.

This figure includes all indebtedness of the county, city, villages, townships and school districts. It is a decrease from one year ago of $483,077.54. Actually $563,630.65 of the debt was paid off last year, Clements said, but $80,553.31 of new indebtedness occurred.

The breakdown given by Clements shows almost half the debt—$4,038,000—is owed by the Marion City schools on new buildings. The county has a total debt of $1,702,454.75 of which $1,625,000 is on the new hospital and the remainder in special assessments for roads and ditches.

Rural schools owe $1,160,165.75 for buildings, sites, repairs and equipment and an additional $6,000 in operating notes. Villages in the county have a total debt of $339,999.99, while the townships owe $41,617.23 all but $1,200 of which is for fire equipment in four of them.

Clements said the county hospital has incurred a debt of $350,000 more already this year.

Head of Bucyrus Plant Appoints New Manager

BUCYRUS — Walter J. Michael, president of the Crawford Steel Foundry Co. here, announced today that he has appointed a vice-president and general manager, William Joseph Phillips of Cleveland. Phillips will fill the vacancy caused by the sudden death last December of the former manager, Otto F. Rehn.

For the past three years Phillips has headed the sales organization of the Crucible Steel Castings Co., Cleveland. Prior to that he was director of product development for the Steel Founders Society of America.

He plans to reside in Bucyrus with his wife and 19-year-old daughter.

$25 Loss Reported In Two Fire Runs

A fire blamed on a defective chimney caused an estimated $25 loss early this morning to the residence of Mrs. Alice Hart at 1006 N. Main St.

Firemen from the Central and Mark St. stations answered the alarm at 3:06 a.m. It was one of three runs made during the last 24 hours by city firemen. They said the fire broke out in the siding of the house where a stove pipe connected to a flue.

No loss was reported from a blaze in a chair on the rear porch of a vacant house at 861 Marshall St. at 11:02 p.m. Tuesday. Firemen from the Central and W. Center St. stations answered the alarm turned in by a passerby. They said the fire apparently started from a discarded cigarette thrown or dropped on the chair.

The other run was an inhalator call at 5:32 p.m. Tuesday to 440½ Davids St. where Clyde Smith, 64, was reported suffering a heart attack. Inhalator crewmen said they used the inhalator on Smith for some 15 minutes successfully.

Words of Men and the Word of God

By REV ASHLEY BOOTH
Pastor of Central Christian Church

"Heaven and earth will pass away but my words will not pass away."—Mark 13 31.

Is your automobile wearing out? Does your home need a new roof? Do you need your shoes re-soled?

We may purchase a new auto or repair the roof or re-sole our shoes But eventually the same problem will present itself again

Here is living proof that ' heaven and earth will pass away "

But the effect of the life and teachings of Jesus Christ increase with the passage of time

And here is testimony enough that His "words will not pass away "

PRAYER: Gracious God help us to be more interested in that which is more than temporary, through Jesus Christ, Amen

Stark Prosecutor To Appeal Ruling

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Prosecutor John Rossetti said today he has appealed a Common Pleas Court ruling that contempt of court is not an indictable offense

The ruling came last Friday when Judge Paul G Weber sustained a demurrer filed on behalf of five persons indicted for criminal contempt. The five were witnesses last November in hearings of the Ohio Un-American Activities Commission, which charged them with refusing to answer questions.

Judge Weber said in a written opinion that contempt was not a criminal offense, but could be dealt with under civil law which carries the same penalties

Rossetti said the appeal was filed with the Fifth District Court of Appeals

The five witnesses are Olga Perry, Rose Mladjan and Paul Bohus of Canton and LaVerne Slagle and Eula Ann Cooper of Massillon Each had been indicted on 10 counts of contempt.

Faith of Our Fathers

There is no intention in what follows to make fun of psychiatry. That is better left to comedians, who seem to know why psychiatry lends itself to joke-making.

But much that has been happening lately suggests the need for a psychiatric study of the composite American mind, if such a thing were possible.

President Eisenhower said in last week's press conference that there is too much hysteria; he must have had the same thing in mind. It is as though the effects of World War II, the post-war readjustment, the Korean war and the let-down following the truce which ended the fighting in that war had disturbed the mental stability required for the work ahead.

Along with this has been the relentless nagging of the Communist conspiracy and disillusionment about the faithfulness and resourcefulness of wartime allies.

If "hysteria" is too strong a word for some of the consequences, certainly "loss of confidence" is not too strong a phrase to suggest that something has happened which needs to be overcome.

There is a condition similar to that referred to 21 years ago when Franklin D. Roosevelt said in his inaugural address that all his countrymen had to fear was fear itself.

Dwight Eisenhower is saying the same thing in slightly different words.

It is significant, too, that a great many preachers, aware of their professional responsibility for the mental poise of their parishioners in times of stress, are talking about the need for calmer and more carefully considered judgments.

There is no other way to deal with the problem, except on this kind of voluntary basis. It is a challenge to the ability of the American people to find their own way, using their freedom of thought and speech to bring them through a trial of doubt and uncertainty.

A national commission of "psyciatrists" to advise a sovereign people is the question, though it could be wished there were some way to give more Americans the advantage of the mental balance that keeps their wisest men and women on an even keel.

President Eisenhower is setting a good example with his personal moderation, as are most of the men qualified to speak for his administration and for the legislative branch of the government.

Actually, it is not psychiatry which is needed. It is the "faith of our fathers" which sustained Americans through all the trials of their troubled past.

The Power To Make War

If history teachers had borne down harder on ideas and eased up on dates, some of their former students now in Congress might not be floundering so awkwardly in their doubts about the power to make war.

They would realize that when Secretary of State Dulles served notice on the Soviet Union that an attack would cause "massive retaliation" by the United States he was stating nothing new.

The power to make war was bestowed on the commander-in-chief deliberately so the nation would not be defenseless in the event of attack.

But it was not the intent of the Constitutional Convention to give the commander-in-chief the right to go to war without provocation. Therefore, the power to declare war was bestowed on Congress.

This meant no war could be sustained over a long period of time without a congressional declaration, though experience has revealed that the only real restraint on war-making is the unique authority of Congress over appropriations.

For instance, the Korean war was fought with no declaration but with the necessary appropriations to sustain it.

Even the most extreme proposals which have been made to change the war-making procedure —those which would have made it necessary for Congress to order a popular vote on the question of whether or not to declare war — have not suggested any interference with presidential authority to order instant and massive military retaliation in the event of an attack.

The point having been argued out thoroughly in the Constitutional Convention, a succession of chief executives took it upon themsleves to use the armed forces for retaliation without waiting for a declaration of war by Congress. The Library of Congress finds more than 140 instances of the use of this presidential power.

Yet there are those who still argue as if the issue never had been joined before, or as if it never had been settled to the satisfaction of most of the people that the commander-in-chief must be free to act in defense of the United States.

Otherwise, any potential enemy would be smart enough to wait until Congress was out of session to destroy what then would be a completely helpless country.

McCarthy and LaFollette

By David Lawrence

History May Repeat in Case of Wisconsin Senator

Maybe those who are ganging up on McCarthy in Washington and elsewhere will succeed in making him a martyr—and then a hero. This is, of course, far from their intent. But their methods and tactics could bring about that result just as happened in the case of another Wisconsin senator more than three decades ago.

Sen. Robert M. La Follette, Sr., Progressive Republican, was denounced from one end of the country to the other because he didn't believe in the issues on which World War I were being fought.

His speeches during the war were so unpopular with the people generally that both Republican houses of the Wisconsin legislature, by majority vote, and the Republican Central Committee of that state petitioned the United States Senate to expel him. The resolution was introduced, referred to a committee and was never acted upon by the Senate.

La Follette was anti-war, but was regarded by some people as actually obstructing the war effort itself.

In 1920, however, just after the war ended, La Follette was re-elected senator from Wisconsin by the biggest majority he ever got, and in 1924 polled nearly 5,000,000 votes as a third party candidate for the presidency.

CALVIN COOLIDGE was elected, but he won the electoral votes of 12 states west of the Mississippi by less than a majority of the votes in those states.

When President Truman went to Wisconsin in recent years to campaign, he extolled La Follette as a great hero and said he hoped that Wisconsin would breed more La Follettes. Thus are martyrs converted into heroes as time passes.

Now the analogy extends only to the fact that McCarthy is being denounced by opponents in just as intemperate a vein as was La Follette, but it merely won the latter more and more supporters.

History may repeat itself. For the opponents of McCarthy are overreaching themselves and causing more bitter cleavages than they realize. The other day a prominent Protestant clergyman in a nationally known church in New York City attacked the Catholic Church as giving birth to such men as McCarthy. This regrettable assault on the Catholic religion was promptly repudiated editorially by two very important newspapers which have been bitterly opposed to McCarthy but who deplored the raising of this issue.

Some of the big Protestant Church organizations have lately been getting into the fray with resolutions that border closely on church intervention in politics. The lack of restraint on the part of the critics is a cause for concern.

MCCARTHY'S VIEWS or his attitude in committee work can hardly be made the basis of his expulsion from the senate despite the fact that he has incurred enmities by his vigorous fight against Communists in the government.

Some of the critics are indulging in the same smear tactics and the same intolerance which they attribute to congressional committee hearings.

Examining some of the expressions of opinion one reads or hears against McCarthy, it might appear that senators can be thrown out of the Senate just because they utter unpopular views. It seems to be forgotten that anything a senator chooses to say at a committee hearing, he can also say in a speech on the floor of the Senate, and there is no rule by which he can be punished for freedom of expression.

Not so many years ago Sen. Heflin got up in the Senate nearly every week for a long time and repeatedly made bitter attacks on the Catholic Church as an institution. His words were unwise but nobody rose to say he should be expelled from the Senate or disavowed by his party.

There have been many excesses on the part of members of Congress in the past, particularly by investigating committees, but when the advantage politically was on the other side, the so-called "liberals" did not inveigh against "methods" or demand "fair codes of procedure." A case in point now is the fact that, despite charges of fraud in the New Mexico election, Sen. Chavez is permitted to vote in the Senate. Yet McCarthy is supposed to absent himself from a committee of which he is chairman.

WHEN A MAN as pugnacious as McCarthy is attacked, naturally he will fight back. For many weeks now the anti-McCarthy folks have been goading the President to have a knockdown, drag-out fight with the Wisconsin senator.

Eisenhower didn't have to add fuel to the flames at every press conference in recent weeks, but he had hardly failed each time to fall for the efforts of the "left Wing" to get him into the headlines on the anti-McCarthy side.

Naturally the Wisconsin senator isn't going to stand for a "purge" any more than Democratic senators have in the past when Democratic presidents have gone even further in trying to read them out of the party.

The Democrats have played the game shrewdly. They knew that the Truman holdovers in Washington and a sympathetic press corps would keep the McCarthy issue alive and now the anti-McCarthy partisans are rejoicing.

The Democrats think they have damaged the Republican party and made it easier for the Democrats to return to power.

The anti-McCarthy republicans think they have overnight, by merely denouncing McCarthy, driven away from him many millions of Republicans who have been his followers.

It must not be forgotten that there are millions of Democratic voters who will cross over to the Republican party to help elect candidates for Congress who are determined to root out Communists in the government and to expose those who protected them in the past.

The Wisconsin senator in the 1952 primaries had an overwhelming majority, and much of it came from Democrats who voted for McCarthy in the Republican primaries. He certainly will draw big crowds in the coming campaign and he can thank his critics for the build-up they have given him.

How Gracious Is It?

By TRUMAN TWILL

Things at our house always go smoothly until the new copies of the magazines which play up gracious living show up in the RFD box.

Then it's as though the Serpent had wiggled into the Garden of Eden. We inmates get self-conscious about the relatively low quality of our surroundings. We begin to suspect we aren't living graciously enough.

We pout and nurse dark misgivings about the quality of our surroundings. We long for things we don't have. This, of course is what the gracious - living magazines are hoping we'll do. It's the way they earn their way.

But all money aside, some of us underprivileged subscribers would like to know more about some of these gracious livers sometimes. What do they do when they want to have some fun?

What do they have going for them that produces the wherewithal to pay for living abodes suitable only for depiction in magazines catering to the co-la-la school of home furnishings? Where do they go when they want to be comfortable?

In the unlikely event anyone showed up to take a picture of our tumbledown shack and gave the lady of the house time to dust it and polish it to a fare-thee-well, it still would look as if it had been sat on and slept in.

There would still be unmistakable evidence of canine siestas on the davenport, and it would have to be a fast lensman who could take a picture without a cat in it somewhere.

The bathroom always looks busy, and likewise the kitchen.

Are the flossy premises depicted in gracious - living magazines rigged up to be lived in by blokes who put their feet on the coffee table and do not remove their shoes before so doing, or are they one for show like old-fashioned parlors?

What we would like to see sometime in one of these magazines is a picture in three delicious colors of a room which shows signs of having nested a family of real, live people. We'd like to see a worn place in a carpet where kids have shuffled their feet while tuning in Buck Rogers. We'd like to see a chair with a gimpy leg, a piece of furniture that has been kept around for sentimental reasons, an overstuffed chair whose stuffing has sagged;

An array of cupboards with some doors hanging open, a light shade hanging askew, a pile of castoff Sunday newspapers in a corner, a windbreaker tossed over a chair back, a table with a list to starboard, a pair of misplaced shoes peeping through the fringe around the bottom of a well-slept-in davenport and a monkey wrench on a refrigerator waiting until someone goes down cellar.

There must be more to gracious living than ever shows through the perfectionist arrangements of shapes, colors and fabrics in hoity-toity magazines which reveal what folks on the other side of the hill are putting into their living rooms, kitchens and gardens.

There is not even a tin can or a stray bone in the gardens. That shows how artificially contrived these magazine illustrations must be. Gracious living! They should have seen our place the day the cat had kittens in the bedroom. That, brother, was living, not gracious but lively.

Powerful Watchman

American Eagle Befriended by Stork

By John Harris

For seven years in a row now, there have been more than 3,500,000 babies born every year in the United States.

Never, in all our history, has the stork been making so many blessed trips to this area of the earth.

But now the outfit which keeps count — the United States Census Bureau — figures that at least 3,967,000 young Americans were born in 1953. . . .almost 4,000,000—a record.

This means that, by the end of this month, the population of the U.S. will be 161,000,000. In 1950, it was 150,000,000; in 1930, 123,000,000; in 1900, 76,000,000.

At this rate, by 1960 the population of the U.S. will be 200,000,000.

A number of other very interesting things have been happening which people, even in the nation's capital, don't notice, what with all the political hullabaloo going on at the White House, in Congress and at the Pentagon.

Our population is increasing at such a rate that it is as if a whole new city the size of Philadelphia, plus a city the size of Cincinnati, were added to the country every year. Or as if a state with the population of all Iowa or sunny Florida were added annually.

PEOPLE DIDN'T pay much attention — they were talking about Sen. McCarthy — when President Eisenhower mentioned at a press conference the other day that there is a need for "7,000 more breakfasts, 7,000 more dinners, 7,000 more suppers each day than on the day before."

Furthermore two other interesting items were found at the Census Bureau:

Americans are getting married younger than ever before — the average age for men is now 23, the average age for girls is 20.

And, Americans are becoming grandparents at a younger age than ever before in our national history.

Are all these things something to worry about? Not if you believe all the statisticians, researchers and economists who labor in the Department of Commerce, under Sec. Weeks.

Listen to Weeks and his assistants talk, and you decide that the stork is the greatest friend the American Eagle ever had.

"This growth of population is one of the chief reasons why American economists and hardheaded businessmen look ahead with confidence," says Weeks. "The boom in babies means more customers for agriculture and industry to satisfy."

-:-

THE ARRIVAL of babies in our high - standard - of - living land means something different from what it would mean in other less fortunate lands. Never, we were told officially, has there been in all the world's annals a population growth such as ours going hand-in-hand with a highly comfortable way of life.

"Some of the most densely inhabited nations are poor and a new mouth there merely increases mass hunger," Weeks points out, "but this is not the case here.

"The sharp difference between our big population and those in some countries is that in addition to numbers we have our competitive-enterprise system, our vast research developments, or productivity, our tremendous gross national product, our high income per capita, and the American craving for new and better goods and services.

"When an expanding population has these stimulants to well-being the result is steady economic growth over the years.

"Americans consider a high level of prosperity a normal condition and act accordingly. Competitive industry is always thinking up products and services to appeal to desires and demands. Through displays, markedly ahead of 1953, advertising, and other aids to distribution, business is converting appeal into sales. Sales, in turn, create jobs all the way from store counter to factory machine and farm barn."

With the aid of Weeks and experts in his vast department we are able to obtain a mind's-eye view of what the expanding population means and some detailed answers to a number of question marks that, along with the babies, are crowding into our happy land.

Have we room for all this increase? By way of answer:

In the District of Columbia, the population per square mile is 13,150. For the nation, the population per square mile is only an average of 51 persons.

WHAT ABOUT LAND per person to produce food?

"In 1900 there were 4.2 acres per person of cropland, in 1940 there were three acres per person of cropland. In 1950 this was reduced to 2.7 acres per person.

"However, the use of improved varieties of crops, fertilizers, irrigation and better farming methods has greatly increased the per acre production.

"Moreover, large acreages formerly devoted to production of feed for horses and mules have, with the use of tractors in farm mechanization, become available to produce crops for human consumption or to produce crops for feeding livestock which is used for human consumption."

Where in the land is the population increase the greatest:

Answer: In the suburbs.

Between 1940 and 1950 (latest figures), four-fifths of the total United States population gain came in the 168 standard metropolitan areas of the country and nearly one-half came outside the central cities in these metropolitan areas.

Say the census experts:

"It may well be that this process of suburbanization is continuing within a great many of the metropolitan areas, but there are no new and comprehensive statistics at hand to prove this."

-:-

ARE THERE ANY shadows on this happy picture?

The experts could see none.

"Already," they say, "the accelerated increase in the number of births has had a profound effect on school enrollment and this will continue to be felt during the remainder of the present decade.

"A record of 33,000,000 persons were enrolled in schools and colleges at the beginning of the present school year. Two-thirds of this increase was in the age group 5 to 13 years old. By 1959 school enrollment will reach about 39,000,000 — an increase of about 6,000,000, over present enrollment.

"Another effect of the large number of births will be the size of the nation's labor force. In 1950 the average force numbered 64,000,000. By 1960 it would be expected to expand to about 72,000,000. All these growing numbers mean larger markets in prospect for all the goods that people need from childhood to adulthood.

"Baby kits first and toys next. Then schoolbooks. Clothing and baseball gloves. And all the other things that yough wants and needs.

"Then jobs and income to buy automobiles, furniture, TV sets and houses."

Is the economy ahead of this growth or behind it? Was the final question. This answer came from the Department of Commerce's office of Business Economics:

"The great increase in the American physical standard of living, and the availability of comforts and amenities of a broader scale than in any other part of the world, clearly indicate that the economy has been well able to provide for the nation's population increase."

A senate Judiciary subcommittee has been holding hearings on a bill to prohibit any brewery owning a big-league ball club. We are against it.

A radio and TV baseball addict, we have become so accustomed to beer in the play-by-play reports that we would be lost in a crucial series in which malt and hops played no part in the complete box score.

We have reached a point where we can name offhand all the brews involved in baseball, tell the league they are in, state which beers are the 1954 contenders and name the bottling plants that have been traded during the winter.

At the tip of our tongue is the batting average of almost every big brewery in the country and we can tell you when each one entered the league, what clubs it has played with during its career and how it stood at the close of the previous season.

We often get bored with telecast ball games but never with telecast lager and ale. If a game is featured by bad performances by the players on both sides it is nice to know that the breweries are in fine form and playing great ball.

(We recall listening to a big league game in which one team was out ahead by 14 runs in the third, and it was nice to forget the play-by-play and just get the bottle-by-bottle description of what chemical research was doing for the beer that would bring happiness to mother and the kiddies.)

Our legs are kept in condition each summer by obedience to the appeals to "run now to the icebox." In many a game halted by rain our interest has been held by the top regional beer distributors being interviewed on their sales, their hobbies and their family lives.

As each new baseball season arrives we find it fascinating to note which beer salesmen have been waived out of the league, how many distributors have been benched and just which bottlers are holdouts. At times, of course, it gets a little confusing. (We once called up a shortstop for a case of beer and cried, "Take that pitcher out and put a head on him.")

It is easy to understand how it happened that those bandits who got $11,000 in a New York department store couldn't find their way out of the store . . . They probably got caught between the book counter selling whodunits and the department having a bargain sale of "Dragnet" recordings.

Dablyn Crymes, our favorite detective, has completed his probe into that bomb that exploded in the washroom at Grand Central Station. He says it was a revenge job by a fellow who resented washroom coin slots.

"Use No Hooks" has been completely ignored by New York dock workers in its application to the American judicial system, the welfare of a great city, the interest of the general public and the ancient American tradition of abiding by decision.

Marion Girl, Fiance To Be Wed On 'Bride and Groom' Program

Marion will be in the spotlight on the NBC "Bride and Groom" program Tuesday, March 30, when Miss Anna Mae Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Andrews of 624 Concord Ave. and Jack Edwin Strietelmier of Cincinnati step before the TV cameras to exchange their wedding vows. Both are students in business administration at Miami University where they will be graduated in June. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strietelmeier of Cincinnati.

ANNA MAE ANDREWS

The ceremony will take place at 12 o'clock noon in Rockefeller Chapel, NBC Studio, New York. Tele-viewers in Marion and adjoining areas will see the ceremony on April 6 over WLW-C, Columbus, while those within range of Cleveland stations may pick it up on Tuesday March 30.

Miss Andrews, her fiance and their attendants will leave Oxford by motor Saturday morning for New York City, and expect to arrive sometime late Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews and the prospective bridegroom's parents, also plan to leave early Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, their daughter, and her attendant, Miss Joan Johnston, of Canton, roommate at Miami, will be at the Taft Hotel and the prospective bridegroom, the best man, James Dickinson of Virginia, and his parents will be at the Duane Hotel. The couple will get their license Monday morning at 9 o'clock and there will be a rehearsal for the ceremony.

Some 15 relatives and college friends of the couple plan to attend the ceremony which will be followed by a reception. The couple will be flown to Canada on their wedding trip.

Miss Andrews and her fiance were selected from a large number of applicants as Tuesday's bride and groom. According to studio reports some 50 applications are received daily from couples wanting to be married before the NBC cameras.

Members of the Auxilliary to Dyer J. Bird Chapter, Rainbow Division of Ohio, were entertained Friday night at the home of Mrs. Mary Fisher on E. Walnut St. Mrs. Dorothy Beckel, president, presided for the meeting which was opened by prayer by the chaplain, Mrs. Sam Van Voorhis. A report was given concerning a donation of clothing made to the Salvation Army at Christmas.

During the social hour, a mystery box was won by Mrs. Hilda Comstock, and contest honors were won by Mrs. Ralph Horseman and Mrs. Beckel. The next meeting will be April 23, a week later than usual because of Good Friday. Hostess will be Mrs. A.D. Boyd of Spencer St.

Weddings

Announcement is being made of the wedding of Miss Sharon Rose Wolf and Robert L. Exley which took place Saturday evening, March 13. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Wolf of Congress St. and the bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Exley of Toledo.

Rev. J. Paul Goebel, pastor of the First Evangelical and Reformed Church, officiated for the single ring ceremony at 7:30 o'clock, in the parsonage. Present for the ceremony were the bride's parents and sisters, Barbara and Molly Lu.

For her wedding Miss Wolf wore an aqua dress accented with pearls at the neckline. Her accessories were white and she carried white carnatins on a white Bible.

They are making their home at 422½ Olney Ave.

DOVER, Ohio (AP)—Hey, Easter Bunny, check this: Mrs. Ray Dinger's duck lays green eggs. Only the shell is colored. Inside, the eggs are just like those of ordinary ducks.

Church Activities

Sides were chosen in an attendance contest when the First Church of God Home Builders Class met Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Don Swisher entertained the group in their home at 640 E. Mark St. Scripture was read by Harry Koch followed by prayer by Mrs. Shirley Hartman. The contest teams are headed by Mrs. Vera Rhoden for the "blue" and Mrs. Daisy Swisher for the "red." A social hour followed business. The next meeting will be at the parsonage home of Rev. and Mrs. F. D. Morgan in Green Camp.

Men of Forest Lawn Presbyterian Church heard Judge Edward J. Ruzzo of Marion speak on the present status of work with juveniles at a special progam Monday night. He is judge of the Marion County Probate and Juvenile Courts. In a discussion session following the talk, the audience asked questions on specifically what to do and how to help meet present needs.

Herman Powelson, president of the Men's Council, introduced Judge Ruzzo, and Rev. F. L. Kline led a devotional service. Group singing was accompanied by Gerald Peterson. A moving picture on Marion power shovels was presented by Henry Ruhl and Dale Weston, followed by a social hour and refreshments.

Col. Ora M. Baldinger Wed in Las Vegas, Nev.

Of interest here is the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Elizabeth Durand and Col. Ora M. Baldinger, former Marion resident, which took place Saturday, March 6, in Las Vegas, Nev. They will make their home at 865 Marengo Ave. in Pasadena, Calif.

Col. Baldinger, retired Army officer and a graduate of Virginia Military Institute, is a veteran of both World Wars and was one of the Army's pioneer young aviators before and during World War I. He later made his home in Washington D.C. where he was a military aide to President Harding. As a lieutenant-colonel in 1942 he headed the Army's Lockbourne Air Base at Columbus.

Returning to Marion after the death of President Harding, he was in charge of the Harding Home and Museum on Mt. Vernon Ave. for some time.

There is no disparity in marriage like unsuitability of mind and purpose.—Charles Dickens

Delaware Runaways, 13, Found by Local Police

Two thirteen-year-old runaway girls from the Delaware Children's Home were taken into custody early this morning by Marion police and were to be returned to Delaware today.

The girls were seen walking along N. Main St. at 3:47 a.m. this morning and police stopped them to determine why there were on the streets at that hour of the morning. Questioning disclosed they had run away from the children's home.

They were placed in the Marion County Children's Home pending their return to Delaware.
